Application For Sewerage Project Rejected By Ont. Municipal Board

Expenditure of $315,317.71 Too High In Consideration of Present Debenture Debt

The application from Stirling Village Council for permission to install a sewerage system at a cost of $315,317.71 has been turned down by the Ontario Municipal Board. Following is a copy of a letter received by Clerk F. R. Mallory from the Municipal Board and is self explanatory.

"With further reference to this application I have already advised you that since the conference at the Board's office attended by the Village delegation on the 11th instant this application has been the subject of careful reconsideration by Mr. Milburn and myself with the assistance and advice of three other members of the Board. In view of the representations made at that conference we have paid particular attention to the available taxable assessment of the Village in relation to the proposed increase in capital debt.

"I regret to have to advise you that we are all of the opinion that the project is much too costly for the municipality at its present stage of development even if some allowance is made for unrealistic assessment and the fact that so much of the existing debt represents school debt eligible for provincial grants. In the opinion of the Board the fact that it is proposed to have the project undertaken and financed by the Ontario Water Resources Commission does not relieve the Board from the responsibility of imposing a reasonable limit upon the long term capital debt structure of the municipality, and in this particular case we feel that neither the present or probable future resources of the Village are sufficient to justify assuming an obligation of this magnitude."

Yours very truly,
L. R. Cummings,
Chairman

Centennial Book Committee Seeks Data

The Centennial Book Committee met on Tuesday, September 24th in the Council Chambers to review the information gleaned from various sources. Many items of interest are being received.

Anyone having knowledge of incidents relative to the early church life of the community is asked to contact any of the following citizens who have consented to arrange that part of particular concern to them: St. Andrew's, Harper Rollins; St. James, Clinton McGee; St. John's, J. B. Belshaw; St. Paul's, Audrey Elliott; Rawdon Circuit, Rev. W. G. Fletcher; Grace Chapel, Arnold Wannamaker; Pentecostal, A. Hodgen.

Mr. J. B. Belshaw, assisted by the present school principals, J. L. Good and K. Gillies, are compiling data concerning the school development.

This committee is anxious to have a book worthy of the effort but only through the co-operation of older residents who have heard tales of the century can this be made possible. If anyone has old directories, voter's lists, pictures of unusual interest or information regarding original buildings the committee will be pleased to hear from you. A list of business establishments 100 years ago would make excellent reading — will you help if you can?

Next meeting will be Tuesday, October 15th, so please do something soon.

Watson -- McConnell Wedding At Mt. Pleasant

On Saturday, September 14th at high noon a very pretty double ring wedding ceremony was solemnized by the Pastor, Rev. W. G. Fletcher, B.A., assisted by a former Pastor, Rev. R. Bonsteel, B.A., of Bethany, in the Mount Pleasant United Church, when Betty Maude, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McConnell, Stirling R.R. 3, became the bride of Craig Elmer Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Watson, Harold R.R. 2.

The edifice was a picture of loveliness with baskets of gladioli, asters, mums and potted ferns placed across the front. Lighted tapers in silver candelabra graced the Communion table. The guest pews were designated with white satin bows.

Mrs. Lorne Watson, Harold R.R. 2 rendered traditional wedding music and accompanied the bride's aunt, Mrs. Don Rose, Belleville, who was soloist. She contributed "I'll Walk Beside You" before the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in an imported bridal gown styled in Elliston lace and nylon tulle. It was designed with a fitted bodice and a row of tiny lace buttons accentuated the back. The deep bateau neckline was of embroidered lace and long sheath sleeves ended in illy loops at the wrist. The full bouffant skirt of tulle was emphasized by a sectional panel of lace, giving a billowy effect. Her headpiece was a raised bandeau of nylon tulle ruffled in tiered effect and trimmed with opalescent sequins, to which was attached her shoulder-length veil of silk tulle illusion which was trimmed with lace applique and scattered with matching sequins. She carried a colonial bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Miss Shirley Rennie, R.N., Peterborough, was maid of honor in a gown of delicate orchid fine silk cravatette. The bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn McConnell, Mount Pleasant, and Mrs. Glenn Watson, of Marmora, both wearing nile green fine silk cravatette. The gowns of all three attendants were designed identically. They were fashioned on Princess lines with full bouffant skirts. The rounded neckline was enhanced with an off-the-shoulder effect and caught at the back with two flying panels which complimented the gowns. They wore feather bandeaux and ruffled gauntlets in matching colors and carried nosegays of mauve and yellow crysanths.

Little Miss Beth Bonsteel, Bethany, was chic in an ankle length frock of yellow nylon and tulle with matching headdress and carried a dainty basket of yellow 'mums.'

The bride's cousin, Master Keith McConnell, of Mount Pleasant, was ringbearer and carried the rings on a white satin cushion designed in heart shape.

Mrs. Glenn Watson, Marmora, was groomsman for his brother and the ushers were Messrs. Lorne Watson, Harold R.R. 2 and Calvin McCoy, of Eldorado.

The reception followed in the Church Hall where the platform was decorated with potted ferns and a large basket of vari coloured glads. The guest tables were centred with a novelty arrangement of pink asters. The bride's table was daintily appointed with white damask linen and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated in white with pink rosebuds, misted at the base with white tulle and flanked by tall silver candleholders and lighted tapers. All the bridal flowers were used for decoration on the table.

The bride's mother received in a gown of rose adrian lace with matching accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations.

The groom's mother assisted wearing a frock of mauve and white silk with pine accessories and a corsage of matching feathered carnations.

Following the cake ceremony, Rev. W. G. Fletcher was toastmaster and spoke briefly. The groomsman read a telegram of congratulations from the bride's cousins, Messrs. Grant, Allen and Donnie Montgomery, of Toronto.

Mr. Dave Hollinger, of Marsh Hill, proposed a toast to the gifted bride and the groom ably responded and in closing his remarks he proposed a toast to all the beautiful attendants, to which the groomsman replied. The Pastor proposed a toast to all the parents and to the grandfather, Mr. Bert McCoy, Eldorado. To this toast Mr. George Watson and Mr. Raymond McConnell spoke briefly and Rev. R. R. Bonsteel expressed greetings on this auspicious occasion.

The serviteurs were Mrs. Marguerite McMullen, Misses Doris Sine, Margaret Dracup, Anne Dracup, Lola McConnell, Judy Rose, Carole Poste, Dame McAdam, Norma Hoard, Carol Sharpe and Gail Scott. They were given a mauve and white band apron of organdy and nylon with a matching handkerchief in the pocket. The bride also presented the senior serviteurs with bon-bon dishes and the junior girls with novely gifts and autograph albums.

Mrs. Watson chose to wear for her wedding trip by way of Niagara Falls to Buffalo and Syracuse, a frock of iridescent mauve silk with hoop skirt, black silk duster, matching velvet hat and accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

On their return they will reside in the Wellman's community.

The bride is a music supervisor in the district and will resume her teaching engagements in the various schools next week.

Confused About HOME IMPROVEMENT LOANS?

They're so easy to get... so simple to arrange — you'll wonder why you waited to make the improvements you've been wanting.

STIRLING LUMBER CO. BUDGET PLAN

lets you make home improvements easily... without straining your pocketbook.

Many home owners have never heard of a lumber yard home improvement loan. Of those who have, many are so hazy as to what sort of projects can be financed with this plan, that needed repairs and renovations and changes are simply put off and never get done. Many other people don't know how to go about making the necessary arrangements for a loan and give up in frustration.

Stirling Lumber Co. hopes to clear up these misunderstandings and show you that it is easy and inexpensive to get a Home Improvement Loan.

Here's everything you need to know...

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Any home owner who has a good credit standing and a reasonable equity in his home. No endorsers are required and no security has to be posted.

WHAT IMPROVEMENTS CAN BE FINANCED UNDER OUR PLAN

Generally speaking, any repair, alteration or improvement to an existing structure, including detached garages. To list just a few... finishing attic and basement rooms, adding rooms, re-roofing, new flooring, modernizing kitchens, bathrooms, storm sash, interior and exterior painting, etc.

WHERE DO I APPLY FOR ADVICE?

Stirling Lumber Co. office. Qualified personnel will organize the entire project and arrange a suitable budget plan. If you like to "do-it-yourself" we have plans for you too.

HOW DO I ARRANGE FOR CREDIT?

All you have to do is fill out a simple application form. All transactions are confidential and no co-signers are required.

ARE THERE LIMITS TO AMOUNT AND TIME ALLOWED FOR PAYMENT?

Yes. The minimum credit is $100 and the maximum $3,000. The repayment plan provides for equal monthly payments over various periods, ranging from 6 to 36 months. After the cost of your job has been determined, a payment plan to suit your budget is worked out.

WHAT ABOUT DOWN PAYMENT?

No down payment is required, but you are reminded that it isn't good business to take on payments larger than you can afford to pay out of your income.

WHAT ARE THE CARRYING CHARGES?

Carrying charges vary depending on the number of months you choose to pay. Whichever plan you select, though, you'll see that our interest rates are lower than those charged for any other commodity you might buy on time.

IS EVERYTHING HANDLED WITH ONE LOAN APPLICATION?

Yes. This plan not only includes materials supplied by Stirling Lumber Company, but also those of other suppliers and trades such as plumbers, electricians, painters, masons, carpenters, etc.

WHO HANDLES THE CONTRACTING?

This is entirely up to you. However, Stirling Lumber Co. personnel are experienced in working with the contracting trades and suggest that you take advantage of this experience by allowing us to make the necessary arrangements. In this way you are guaranteed of a quality job, at reasonable prices, with a minimum of inconvenience to you.

CAN I DO THE JOB MYSELF?

By all means! The same loan arrangements are available to "do-it-yourselfers" and to give you a hand, Stirling Lumber Co. will loan you specialized tools to help you do a professional job. Here are just a few of the tools available... tile cutters, linoleum rollers, glue spreaders, hand staplers and spot nailers, insulation blowers, power saws, power sanders, etc.

These two are as fast as lightning and both are capable of roughing it up if the opposition likes it that way. With Shane and Tollas, rough and ready grapplers and Melby and The Scot ready to go it looks like a good one.

In the other two out of three falls affair, Strangler Lewin and Farmer Mack, of Saskatoon, will have it out at each other in a match that should provide the fans with plenty of action. As a special attraction Mr. Paul Brunet has arranged to have his bear Terrible Teddy wrestle with one of the leading heavyweights on the card. Mr. Brunet claims that Ted, his 350 pound black bear, is a real performer and is willing to give anyone $100 in cash who can pin Ted to the mat for 5 seconds.

All in all it looks like a real good night's entertainment for the fans and the first bout is scheduled to go at 8:45 p.m.

United Church

Anniversary Services

The United Church held its annual anniversary services on Sunday with both morning and evening services conducted by the pastor, Mr. George Dyson.

In the morning service he spoke on the subject, "Christians Wake Up" and the evening theme was "Satan Takes A Holiday." Both sermons were well delivered and those present spoke highly of them.

The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. William Grant, rendered an anthem in the morning service, "Stand Up For Jesus" and "In Perfect Peace." In the evening service the anthem was "A Mighty Fortress." Mrs. Grant contributed a solo. The quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. George Dyson and Mr. and Mrs. John Lainson, gave two numbers which were much appreciated.

The attendance at the morning service was good but the evening service was not so well attended.

Friends Honour Bride-Elect

On Tuesday evening neighbours and girl friends gathered at the home of Mrs. John Wallace to honour Miss Marilyn Fitchett, bride-elect.

Mrs. William Donnan was master of ceremonies. A short programme was presented consisting of community singing, with Mrs. Lindsay Sills at the piano; readings, by Mrs. Ted Pollock, Mrs. John McInroy and Mrs. Russell Sills. Miss Pauline McCurdy, Mrs. Foster Wilson and Mrs. Arthur Hassall each contributed solos.

An address was read by Miss Eleanor Wright and Marilyn graciously thanked her hostess and friends for the many gifts and evening's entertainment, expressing the wish that all would visit her in her new home.

After Marilyn unwrapped her gifts, which had been placed in a gaily decorated wishing well, Mrs. John Wallace gave a reading on the "Legend of the Wishing Well," in which Marilyn made her wish.

Mrs. Lindsay Sills conducted two contests. Refreshments were served and a social hour brought a pleasant evening to a close.

Six Men Arrested In O.P.P. Swoop

Six men were lodged in the county jail, Cobourg, following a gang-busting swoop by provincial police Thursday last in the wake of a widespread rash of break-ins during the past six weeks. The six are: Robert Carr, 24, R.R. 1, Belleville; William Deshane, 20, Carrying Place; Arthur Wright, 19, Kenneth Brooks, 25, Percy Merrill, 30, and Bruce Cooney, 30, all of Trenton.

THEY PAY NO TAXES

A "CORPORATION TAX" is not a tax on the corporation, but is, rather, a tax on the customers who buy the goods or services it produces.

Taxes are a cost of doing business. They must be included in the price structure along with wages, and the costs of raw materials and supplies.

An increase in corporation taxes, or in any other taxes, is an increase in costs which must ultimately be reflected in prices. Hence, a decrease in corporation or other taxes would ease the upward pressure on costs and prices.

Andrew's Presbyterian Church, West Huntingdon, exchanged pulpits with Rev. R. R. Bonsteel, Bethany, and conducted Anniversary Services in Bethany United Church on Sunday, September 29th. He was accompanied by Mrs. Walker.

Rev. and Mrs. Walker had served on the Janetville Charge prior to coming to Stirling in 1938.

In the guest minister's opening remarks to the congregation he paid high tribute to St. Andrew's Minister and his wife, saying, "When the Bonsteels moved to Bethany, to say we were friends of the Walkers was as a key opening hearts and homes."

Rev. Bonsteel conducted the Rally Day Service of Worship prepared by the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Superintendent Mr. Barton Haggerty, led in the Responsive Scripture passages.

The guest minister spoke from the theme of service of worship and Jesus said, "Follow me and I will make you," Matthew 4:17. We are thinking today of the boys and girls in our church and of the vital importance of the work of those who lead and teach the young. In this verse of Scripture we find an invitation and a promise, "And I will make you." Jesus still comes to men working in the fields, to women who spend their time with household affairs, to every boy and girl who think their long thoughts and who wonder what life has in store for them, He still gives the invitation and the promise.

Wherever you work or live you can offer your entire life to His Service, not making of religion a hobby, but by being faithful and simply following Him.

During the service the Junior Choir sang "The Book of Books." The offering will be used to help needy Church Schools.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

COMPULSORY EGG LAYING

I see where Albertans are going to vote on compulsory egg marketing. Why the farmers want to have still another middleman between them and us egg-eaters, I can't imagine; but while they're about it, why not do it up brown?

Why not pass a compulsory egg-laying law? The feather-bedding some have been doing lately ought to be checked. If we're leading the farmers, I suggest an Egg-Laying Board, making it compulsory for every adult hen to lay two eggs a day, on half the feed. This would be a real business, whereas the Marketing Board may turn out to be something far less agreeable than a blessing.

Another much more useful device for the farmer would be an Egg-Eating Board, which would make it compulsory for us consumers to eat more eggs at higher prices. Not long ago I bought a dozen eggs from a farm woman at a roadside stand. She looked like a fine, honest woman. I asked her, "Would the yolks be a nice yellow colour?" She assured me they would be, so I paid her rather high price. The yolks were a fiery red and I threw out all the eggs and I'll not patronize that farm again. Stubborn consumers like me could be brought into line by a good stiff penalty for refusing to eat them and like them.

Presumably the Egg Marketing

Board, if it comes, will force me to pay more for eggs. If the price goes up, the Egg Marketing Board will quickly take the credit. If the price goes down, will the Egg Marketing Board take the responsibility? I doubt it.

I think the farmers are entitled to form Egg Marketing Boards if they want them — but not compulsory Boards. There must be quite a few farmers who'd prefer to remain independent. They'd provide some competition, which could benefit us consumers. Are the farmers against competition? Certainly they set up a holler — and I don't blame them — when industry attempts a monopoly. Yet some of the farm leaders seem to me to be advocates of compulsory monopoly themselves!

At our home, we've had the same egg-man for a long time. He brings us good, fresh eggs, and we pay him a good price. There's no middleman at all in this deal. I suppose an Egg Marketing Board will either turn him into an egg bootlegger or he'll be forced to conform. He's a pretty independent man, and I'm eager to know his decision. I'm pretty independent myself, and if the price of eggs gets too high I'll switch to flapjacks for breakfast!

Principle is an opinion that has stood the test of time.

Of Canada's ten provinces only two, the prairie provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, do not border on salt water.

Quinte Branch U.E.L.
Holds Interesting
September Meeting

A very interesting evening meeting of the Bay of Quinte Branch of the U.E.L. Association was held in the Adolphustown Municipal Hall on September 11th. The business part of the meeting was conducted by the President, Dr. Gerald Allison, of Picton.

About fifty members of the Association were privileged to hear a paper read by Capt. J. Rogers, a former R.C.M.P. and World War II Veteran, now a resident of Picton as a civilian employee with the engineers at the School of Artillery. Capt. Rogers is a direct descendant of a U.E.L. whose ancestors settled in the Township of Fredericksburg and Cherry Valley.

His address was entitled, "Rogers, Ranger and Loyalist" and has been read before a similar meeting fifty-eight years ago in Toronto by a relative Lt. Col. H. C. Rogers, of Peterborough. It was written by Walter Rogers, Barrister, of England. The careful research done both in England and North America on the Rogers family results in valuable contribution to the history of the Loyalists. The two Rogers brothers, Col. James and his more famous brother, Major Robert, may have led lives not unlike many others of the time though they were in Canada before the American Revolution. During the Seven Years' War, Robert was in command of Rogers' Rangers, eight hundred men, and saw Canada pass from French to English rule. He was a very colourful figure having at one time appeared for a wager at the King's levee dressed "in buckskin gaiters worn by the rangers during their woodland campaigns." He was also a brilliant soldier, familiar with the continent from Labrador to the mouth of the Mississippi.

The interval between the Seven Years' War and the revolt of the Colonies, James Rogers spent "in the building of an estate in that part of the Province of New York which subsequently became the State of Vermont." He acquired some 22,000 acres which in 1780 was valued at thirty to forty thousand pounds. Robert Rogers spent this time in England, in Africa, and in the East Indies until he was recalled to North America during the American Revolution. He was twice arrested in the U.S., but finally escaped and became a Colonel under General Howe. He raised the regiment known as the Queen's Rangers. In 1779 he made another attempt to help the British cause, having been commissioned to raise two battalions to be known as the King's Rangers. His brother James was in charge of one which was stationed at St. John's, Quebec and the other was at Halifax. They suffered many hardships there were great difficulties in administering and maintaining an army due somewhat to slowness of communications. When the Loyalists' troops were ordered to be disbanded in 1783 and were allotted land Col. James Rogers and many of his men of the King's Rangers, made preparations during the winter of 1783-84 for their move westward the following year.

He returned to his former home in Vermont for his wife and son, who accompanied him "into the wilderness in search of a new home. Dr. Ryer son's "Loyalists of British America," tells of their coming to Cataracton, thence to Fredericksburg. James Rogers died in 1792 and was buried in Fredericksburg; the brother, Robert Rogers, had died in 1784 in England. James Rogers' son, David, was an outstanding man also, being a representative to the early Houses of Assembly of Upper Canada for twenty-four years. He is said to have "slain the wolf, the marauding tyrant of the district, with his oaken walking stick." He died at Grafton in 1824.

Col. Davern thanked Capt. Rogers for one of the best addresses yet given to the Association; it was more interesting because it was given by one of our own members. A copy of the paper has been donated to the Association's collection of historical documents.

Wilkes -- Laney
Nuptials At Belleville

Bridge Street United Church, Belleville, was the setting on Saturday, September 21st at 3:00 p.m. for a wedding of wide interest when Irene Florence Laney, of Belleville, R.R. 3, graduate of the Ontario School for the Deaf, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Laney, became the bride of Ernest Welburn Wilkes, of Toronto, son of Mr. Harry Wilkes, of Toronto, and the late Mrs. Wilkes. The Rev. Harry M. Davis, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. R. Rumble, of Toronto, who interpreted the ceremony and solos in sign language, officiated.

Mr. S. Alec Gordon, church organist, presided at the console of the organ and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. W. J. Burgoyne, who rendered, "O Perfect Love," before the ceremony, and "The Wedding Prayer," during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, Mr. John Laney, the bride wore a beautiful bridal gown of French lace fashioned with full-length skirt and fitted bodice buttoned down the back with self buttons, having a jewelled necklace and tiny, Peter Pan collar. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held by a coronet headdress encrusted with seed pearls, and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses and adiantum fern. A single strand of pearls completed her ensemble.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. Hollahan, of Belleville, R.R. 3, as matron of honour, gowned in blue French lace and net over taffeta, in ballerina-length, with matching hat and gloves, and carrying a semi-cascade of pink roses.

Miss Jean Kirk, as bridesmaid, was in pink French lace and net over taffeta in ballerina-length with matching hat and shoes, and carrying a semi-cascade of white and blue-tinted carnations.

The two little flower girls, Miss Donna Knott and Miss Carol Kirk, were sweet and demure, the former in yellow in ballerina length, with matching headress and shoes, and carrying a nosegay of roses and mums; the latter in turquoise, also in ballerina length with matching headress, shoes and carrying a nosegay of mums and roses.

Mr. Kenneth Nash, of Toronto, attended the bridegroom, while Mr. Richard Laney, brother of the bride, and Mr. Vincent Kirk, of Toronto, ushered the guests.

The wedding supper was held at the Army and Navy Hall, Belleville, where the bride's mother, wearing grey silk taffeta appliqued with black velvet, with white accessories, and corsage of red roses, received the 90 guests. She was assisted in the receiving line by the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Edward Ogden, of Toronto, who was gowned in navy blue with white accessories and corsage of red roses.

The bride's table was daintily appointed with white linen damask, and a three-tiered wedding cake on pillars, flanked by pastel-tinted gladioli, and topped by a tiny bride and bridegroom. The bridal bouquets added a further nuptial accent.

For travelling to New York City, the bride chose a pink suit with black accessories, and corsage of blue-tinted carnations. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes will make their home in Toronto.

Prior to her marriage the bride was the honored guest at a farewell party and presentation held by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, of which the bride is a staff member, when she was presented with a pop-up toaster and electric kettle. Also at a shower held in Toronto by friends.

Guests were present from Toronto, Ottawa, Stirling, Trenton, Belleville and Cornwall.

The Bible Today

Fifty thousand copies of Scriptures in the Zulu languages are being published by the British and Foreign Bible Society, which has begun an experiment in distribution in South Africa with the financial support of the Dutch Reformed Church.

This denomination is making money available to the British and Foreign Bible Society for the free distribution of St. Luke's Gospel and the Book of Acts bound in one book, in three of the most popular Bantu vernaculars.

The Bible Society will do the distribution through the Churches in order to assure that it is done in the most responsible way possible, and that a sound follow-up is carried out. Zulu is the language in which the experiment will begin this year, with the Dutch Reformed Church meeting the cost of the publication.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

SKIMMILK IMPORTS UNDER CONTROL

The Honourable Douglas S. Harkness, Minister of Agriculture, has announced that the government had placed skimmilk powder under import control as of midnight, September 22nd. The price of skimmilk powder in Canada has been supported at 17 cents per pound. Under the influence of the support programme imports have been heavy, with producers in other countries taking advantage of the support price. The stocks on hand as of September 1st were in excess of 27,000,000 pounds, the highest on record. In order to protect Canadian producers from the danger of the market being swamped by large supplies of imported milk powder the government has acted to apply control. Had imports continued at the current rate, the major part of the Canadian production would be going into hands of the Agricultural Prices Support Board instead of directly onto the market.

DETECTING INSECTS IN STORED GRAIN

A water-trap, devised by F. L. Watters, of Winnipeg, leader of stored product insect research work for the Science Service Division of the Canada Department of Agriculture, has proved generally superior to grain sampling as a method of detecting the presence of insects in stored grain. Such a simple, sensitive warning system is of vital importance to the success of a pest control programme as stored grain insects are capable of increasing their numbers by tremendous proportions in a short period of time. Furthermore, once an infestation is established it is more difficult and costly to eliminate.

This water-trap, tested recently in four 1,000 bushel granaries and one 25,000 bushel annex, consisted simply of six-ounce glass jars filled with water to within one inch of the top. These jars were spaced uniformly and pushed into the grain until the tops were level with the grain surface. After a week to ten days the jars were taken to the laboratory and examined for pests. Most species of insects common to stored grain were found in the traps. However, it appears that the usefulness of this method of detecting stored grain insects depends on the depth of the infestation. Fewer insects were taken in traps as grain depth increased.

Indications are that insects do not wander aimlessly throughout stored grain and fall into water traps by accident. There is strong evidence they are attracted to the water-trap areas by the higher moisture content. Jars with no water in them were used as a check and spaced throughout the grain in a similar manner to the water-filled jars. At the end of the test period the empty jars contained fewer insects than the water traps.

Grain temperature is probably the most important single factor affecting the distribution of insects in stored grain. During spring, summer and autumn, the majority of these pests are found in the upper half of stored grain. In mid-winter, insects rarely appear near the surface but seek warmer regions near the centre. Therefore water-traps are more effective in the warmer seasons of the year. Insect distribution is also affected by moisture content. Invariably more insects are found in grain with a high moisture content than in dry grain.

When using water-traps in the winter, anti-freeze should be added to eriology and chemistry were lacking, prevent freezing. Mr. Watters also advises the use of waxed cardboard garded as an art with the closely guarded secrets of making handed down from father to son.

Since 1900 rapidly increasing scientific knowledge has resulted in a better understanding of the bacteriology and chemistry involved in making cheese and the many variations. Thus it has become possible to control more precisely each step in the making process and to manufacture a uniform product. In fact, cheesemaking has become a science rather than an art. Mainly for this reason Canadian consumers are now enjoying more and better cheese than ever before, and at least partially explains why the per capita consumption over the past 10 years has moved upward at a steady rate.

If they could be gathered together in one place the number of different kinds of cheese being manufactured in Canada at present would surprise even those close to the business. Up until comparatively recent times cheddar was the one Canadian cheese widely known throughout the country and, for that matter, throughout the world. However, in recent years something new has been added to the cheese scene in Canada and any comprehensive selection, as will be made during the October Cheese Festival, will contain many types known only to new Canadians.

Indeed, the so-called new Canadian is responsible for recent trends in cheese manufacturing in this country. Many of the people who have come to Canada in the past few years have been notably from Holland, Germany and Italy. They brought with them a taste for their native cheeses and that is mainly why we are coming to know new names in cheese . . . names like Edam, Bra, Tilsit, Provolone and literally dozens of others. In many cases the foreign type cheese appearing in Canada are being made in small quarters by people who are filling a local ethnic demand for a certain type of cheese. The larger cheese manufacturers also cater to the taste of the new Canadians so far as it is practical to do so. When the market for a given cheese is large enough, needless to say the larger manufacturers will not overlook the opportunity.

In spite of the fact that there are hundreds of different cheese names there are comparatively few basic types. Though many have tried, it is difficult if not impossible to classify the different cheese satisfactorily in groups. Most cheese is natural cheese. That is, it is made directly from milk (or whey in a few instances) as opposed to "process" cheese which is made from a blend of natural cheeses. Natural cheese is made by coagulating or curdling milk, stirring and heating the curd, draining off the whey, and collecting or pressing the curd. Desirable flavour and texture are obtained in many by curing the cheese — that is, holding it for a specified time at a specific temperature and humidity.

In spite of dozens of variations there are only about 18 distinct types of natural cheese, many of which are typical of those made in Canada: Brick, Camembert, Cheddar, Cottage, Cream, Edam, Gouda, Hand, Limburger, Neufchatel, Parmesan, Provolone, Romano, Roquefort, Sapsago, Swiss, Trappist, and whey cheese which is made in the United States but rarely in Canada.

Such a grouping, though informative, is imperfect and incomplete. Cheese can also be classified as very hard (grazing), hard, semi-soft or soft; and as ripened by bacteria, by mold, by surface organisms, or by a combination of these, or as unripened.

Over the centuries that cheese has been made, modifications or changes in one or more steps in the cheese

DEFINES THE RIGHTS OF NEWSPAPER

(Ottawa Journal)

The right of a newspaper to report the news, even if in the process somebody's toes are stepped on, has been upheld stoutly by Mr. Justice McInnes of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

An application for proceedings in contempt of court was made to Justice McInnes against two Vancouver newspapers by a man charged by the police with having a rifle in his possession dangerous to the public peace. The accused charged that the newspaper story would prejudice his trial.

His Lordship dismissed the application. He said the stories to which objection was taken were "factual reports" and nowhere in them was there any expression of opinion by the writers. The newspapers had a perfect right to publish what they did, said Justice McInnes and he made this general observation:

"It is the business of a newspaper to gather and publish information to their readers of matters of public importance and that right will not be interfered with unless the higher right of the courts to determine guilt or innocence of the accused is thereby prejudiced or interfered with."

This judgment is in fact a judgement in favour of the freedom of the press. That freedom is linked, of course, under the law with the freedom of the individual, but it cannot be restricted or abridged without damage to all. The wise words of Mr. Justice McInnes may serve to clear away some cobwebs in the public mind.

THE FOOD BASKET

ONIONS ARE A GOOD BUY

Canada's Marketing Service in the Department of Agriculture has forecast for 1957 an increase of more than 100,000 bags of onions over last year's crop. To the consumer this figure may not mean very much, except that onions are sure to be a good buy in the months ahead. What's more we've been told that the onions will be of very high quality. So — sharpen up your knife, get out the dry mustard, turn on the electric fan, and prepare to enjoy onions in abundance!

In your cook books you'll find onions used in everything from a souffle to a stew for they have the happy faculty of making other foods taste better. From the Consumer Section, here are a few other suggestions for serving onions:

1. On a cool fall day, make up a kettleful of real French onion soup. First, brown plenty of thinly sliced onions in butter, then add them to a well-seasoned soup stock or bouillon — home made, canned or made from the cubes — and cook until the onions are tender, but not soft. Serve the soup steaming hot, garnished with croutons and grated cheese, or with toasted slices of French bread which have been sprinkled with grated cheese, and browned under broiled heat.

2. When you're cooking a roast, bake some whole onions in the same pan — they'll trade flavours and enhance each other. If using medium or large onions, parboil them about 20 minutes first. For a change, hollow out the centres of parboiled onions and fill with stuffing before baking about 30 minutes around the roast.

3. French fried onion rings are ideal for parties and so crisp and good they melt in your mouth! Next time you're frying doughnuts or potato chips in deep fat, why not finish off by frying some onion rings? To make them, slice the onions, separate into rings, dip in milk then flour, and fry a few at a time until golden brown.

4. For onions that will smother, steam, liver or ham burger just the way they should — cook 8 or 10 sliced onions slowly in a little fat (about 2 tablespoons) in a heavy skillet until tender and golden brown, approximately 20 mins. Turn frequently during cooking and season with salt, pepper and chili powder or sweet basil, as desired.

5. Don't neglect creamed onions . . . they're especially good with turkey or chicken. Cook either whole small onions in salted water or sliced onions in butter. Drain and add to medium cream sauce. For coloured contrast, toss in a few cooked peas or garnish with slivered almonds or paprika.

6. For a different kind of supper dish, bake some onions stuffed with beans. First, parboil large onions about 20 minutes; remove centres, chop, and mix with canned baked beans, a little chili sauce or catchup, salt and pepper. (Allow one 15-ounce can of beans for 6 onions). Fill onion shells with bean mixture, sprinkle with chopped uncooked bacon and bake in 350 degs. F. oven 30 minutes, or until onions are tender.

P.S. — In case you're wondering why you'll need the dry mustard and electric fan — the fan will keep tears away when you're chopping onions, if the breeze is directed in such a way that it will carry the onion fumes away from you — and a little dry mustard mixed with water will remove the odour of onions from your hands.

CONSERVATION NEWS !

Lands Division

With the autumn colouration beginning to drap the countryside there is that certain magnetism still drawing the city dweller to the wide open spaces, looking for the much sought after cottage site.

This has resulted over the first half of this month in a very heavy volume of enquiries and visits to the District Office seeking information on the available sites.

Although the North Hastings County area has for many years been the centre of activity, a considerable impetus has occurred in the applications for land on the Skootamatta, Mazinaw and Kashawakamak Lakes area bordering or adjacent to Highway No. 41 and only a short distance north of No. 7 Highway.

This interest has been considerably accelerated by the summer occupants who have enjoyed the use of the Mazinaw Lake Provincial Park, which, although small, has experienced a full and profitable season.

It is expected that if the present weather maintains, we will have one of the most successful seasons on record.

Wheel Weight Research

Tests of rubber-tired tractors at the Canada Department of Agriculture Experimental Farm indicate that the ability of a tractor to pull depends on its weight. Different tread designs and tire sizes show small advantages under special conditions, but for general farm work the weight on the tire is the most important factor.

As an example, a tractor rated at 40 horse power on the draw bar and travelling four miles per hour would require a drawbar pull of 3,760 pounds to develop 40 drawbar horse power. Taking the drawbar pull as one-half the weight, the tractor should weigh 2 x 3,760 or 7,520 pounds. To show the effect of speed of travel, if this was reduced to three miles per hour the drawbar pull would have to be increased to 5,000 pounds in order to develop 40 drawbar horse power. This means that the tractor weight would have to be increased 2 x 5,000 or 10,000 pounds. It has been demonstrated therefore, that extra wheel weights are usually necessary when the tractor is used on low speed heavy draft work.

Traffic Island And Sewerage Chief Topics of Discussion By Council

Parking Regulations On North And Mill Streets To Be Changed By Council

Where do we go from here is the question now facing the Village Council following the Ontario Municipal Board's rejection of its application to install a sewerage system at a cost of $315,000.00.

A lengthy discussion ensued at Monday night's Council session but other than to re-emphasize the need for a sewerage system in the Village nothing definite was done. It was pointed out that there were several spots in town where present arrangements for taking care of sewage were inadequate and no apparent solution to the problem. However, there is still hope that a revision in present plans in the disposal plant might lower the costs to a point where they would be acceptable to the Municipal Board.

Clerk Mallory reported receipt of a grant of $517 from the Dominion Government in lieu of taxes on the Post Office.

Population Up

He also reported that the present population of the Village was 1,325, which will be displayed on Highway signs at the entrance to the Village.

Traffic Island

A complete report from the Ontario Department of Highways on the installation of a traffic island at the intersection of Highways 33 and 14 was tabled by the Clerk. Drawings of the proposed island were tabled together with suggested changes in traffic regulations on North and Mill Streets. Council approved the proposed changes and Councillor J. Wright gave notice of motion to amend Bylaw No. 480. Under the proposed changes parking will be banned 50 feet from the intersection on the North side of Mill St. and 100 ft. from the intersection on North St.

A drainage problem on John St. was discussed at considerable length by Council with Messrs. Morley Ayrhart and Orland Towns in attendance but the matter was left in abeyance.

On motion of Councillors Wells and Wright Council approved an agreement between the County of Hastings and H. W. Andrews, of Colling Bay relative to a property on Church St.

The question of installation of the new type street lights was discussed and on motion of Councillors Wells and Ray members of the Public Utilities will be invited to meet with Council on October 30th for further discussion.

Following are the accounts: Frank Staples, $10.00; Clifford Sine, $15.00; Harry Morrow, $31.97; S. Eggleton, $9.00; County of Hastings, $109.05; McIntosh & Wells, $1.15; Stirling Welding & Repair Shop, $4.00; Bell Telephone, $13.20; County of Hastings, $46.50; Stirling Agricultural Society, $425.00.

Activities of The Local Brownies

We have the largest group of Brownies this year that have been registered in the past six years — thirty-eight including ten new Tweens. Pat Fraser and Barb Woodbeck are helping us again this year. As you know they are Gold Cord Guides and are a wonderful help in teaching Brownies.

Mrs. Cornett has joined us as Snowy Owl and with such a large Pack we certainly appreciate extra help. Mrs. Harding as Tawny Owl and myself as Brown Owl gives us a chance for more individual instruction. This is very necessary in Brownies so that each one understands her work better.

Attendance is a must because each week there is new work and it takes three years for a Brownie to cover it all and earn her wings to fly up into Guides.

Remember mothers to encourage your Brownies to be useful around home. Perhaps they are a little bit awkward and slow, but this way they are learning to do their good deeds. Brownies do not get paid for doing good deeds, they do them willingly and lovingly so that they carry on the tradition of the true meaning of the word "Brownies."

Next week is Thanksgiving so there will not be any meeting till the following Monday.

Linda West is having her tonsils out this Saturday so we all wish her the "Hope you feel a lot better Linda."

The programme on "Citizenship and Education" was arranged by Mrs. Donohoe and Mrs. Percy Utman. In their absence Mrs. Roy Bush presided and opened with a patriotic song. Mrs. Allan McDonell presented the motto, "Citizenship like charity begins at home." The roll call was "Something about the Union Jack." Readings were given by Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh, Mrs. Phil Conley, Mrs. Gerald Brooks and Mrs. J. L. Donohoe.

Wrestlers Fail To Show

Wrestling fans in this area were disappointed on Tuesday night when the wrestlers failed to turn up. The event had been widely advertised and no explanation has been given for their failure to appear.

In order to correct a misunderstanding in some circles the Stirling Legion had no interest in the show other than the rental of the arena.

The Rotary Club of Stirling will be host to W. Robert Horton, Governor of the 701 District of Rotary International on Tuesday next, October 15th, who is making his annual official visit to each of the 28 Rotary Clubs in Ontario from Barrie and Peterborough north and five Clubs in North Western Quebec. He will address the local Club and confer with President Harold C. Bird, Secretary Geo. Lyons and committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

Mr. Horton is owner-manager of Huntsville Dairy in Huntsville, Ont., and is a member and Past President of the Rotary Club of Huntsville. In Huntsville, Bert is a member of the Board of Stewards of Trinity United Church, a former Chairman of the Library Board and a Past President of the Literary Society, the Music Club and the Benevolent Society. He was elected as a District Governor of Rotary International for the 1957-58 fiscal years at Rotary's 48th Annual Convention in Lucerne, Switzerland, last May. He is one of 249 District Governors supervising the activities of more than 9,500 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 446,000 business and professional executives in 102 countries throughout the free world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, President H. C. Bird asserted in discussing the Governor's visit, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Stirling because they are based on the same general objectives — developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year, this world wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength, President Bird added. During the past fiscal year, 341 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 41 countries of North, South and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa and the islands of the Pacific and six countries were added to Rotary's roster — Cambodia, French Cameroon, French Equatorial Africa, Guadelope, Liechtenstein and Uganda.

Farewell

Many of us will feel great regret at the departure of the Rev. H. C. Secker, Mrs. Secker and family, who leave Stirling for St. Luke's, Kingston, at the end of this month.

I understand that a pot luck supper is to be held at St. John's on Wednesday, October 16th on which occasion many friends will be present to wish them farewell.

This is a small community and every public figure is a community figure. Mr. Secker has served this community faithfully and well and it would seem many persons outside the Anglican congregation would wish to say God Speed and thanks to him.

I do hope, therefore, that St. John's will allow those of us who wish to come in to this closing programme.

Meanwhile if there are those of the United Church who feel that they would care to identify themselves with a farewell gift to Mr. and Mrs. Secker, will they kindly get in touch with me.

A Bee

Please help to clean up the grounds surrounding St. Paul's Church and so make it presentable for the Anniversary week-end. Friends are asked to "pitch in" on Monday evening, October 14th as early as possible.

Mrs. David LittleHostess To Pine Grove W.I.

The September meeting of Pine Grove W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. David Little with 10 members present. The President, Mrs. Allynn Finkle, opened the meeting with the singing of the Opening Ode, after which the Mary Steward Collect was repeated in unison.

The roll call was answered by naming "A Homemaker's Resolution." Mrs. Harold Detlor, Mrs. David Little and Mrs. Fred Campbell volunteered to canvas for the blind. An invitation to attend the Extension Service, "Meals and Money," was read from the Foxboro W.I. Plans were made for serving at the Belleville Livestock Sales Barn on October 8th. April 15th, 1958, was decided as a satisfactory date for the Extension Service, "Cultural Activities."

Conveners of Standing Committees reported. Current events prepared by Mrs. Ivan Clare were read by Mrs. Chas. Jayell.

Mrs. Alex Tanner, convenor of "Resolutions," presided over the programme. A panel discussion on "Resolutions" which had been given at the 1963 Officer's Conference in Guelph was used. The various parts were taken by the following members: Mrs. Ridley, by Mrs. Alex Tanner; Mrs. Bell, by Mrs. Leslie Finkle; Mrs. Fletcher, by Mrs. Fred Campbell; Mrs. Houck, by Mrs. Harold Detlor. This discussion proved very interesting and helpful.

A reading, "The Vanishing Wood-pine," was given by Mrs. David Little. Mrs. Tanner gave a reading, "What's Your Hurry?" Mrs. Tanner also conducted a contest, with each member making as many words as possible from the word "Resolutions."

The meeting closed with all repeating the Lord's Prayer, after which refreshments were served by the lunch committee.

The Bible Today

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

All over the world there is an astonishing revival of interest in the sacred text of Holy Scripture. Never in our history have Christians been committed to such a tremendous volume of translation and revision work. This year 1957 finds the Bible Society supervising Scripture translations into 243 different languages.

Since world war II the work of translating has increased at least six-fold. This is to be accounted for by a perfectly normal stage in the development of the life of the Church. Where mission work began about 60 to 60 years ago, now is the time that we might expect whole Bibles to be coming to completion.

The law of kingdom growth "First the blade, then the ear and then the full corn" applies here — first the tentative pioneer Gospel, then, by various stages of trial and error, the New Testament, now, as the Church and community have taken root and growth, the whole Bible, without which no Church has the articles of faith.

At a time of profound moral confusion and fear, of the failure of systems, of the revival of ancient faiths such as Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism, and now the astonishing success of new ones such as communism, what more natural than that man should once again turn to the Bible and begin to take it seriously.

Past Grand's Club

The Past Noble Grand's Club was entertained at the home of Sis. Mabel Barlow on Wednesday, September 11th. The President, Sis. Warren, opened the meeting with the members repeating the opening verse and the Lord's Prayer in unison. Roll call showed eight Sisters present.

The Secretary read a letter of greeting from Sis. Mary Vandervoort and Sis. Edith Utman, who were in Toronto and couldn't be present that day.

The program consisted of a poem, "Kindness," by Sis. Gena Spry, followed by a verse, "Financially Speaking," by Sis. Annie Warren; a reading, by Sis. Hazel Mumby, and an apple contest, by Sis. Grace Vandervoort. Sis. Warren closed the meeting with the members singing one verse of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

The hostess invited the members to the dining room where all enjoyed a delicious pot luck supper, after which Sis. Effie Bailey thanked Sis. Barlow for hospitality.

What Others Say IDEFEATIST

(Napanee Post Express)

One of the strongest forces in a business recession is the psychology of defeat. Thus we find in a district newspaper, a paragraph which declares that "the boom is over."

The editorial opinion continues by warning that the forces of depression are becoming very strong, that unemployment is with us, that we are on the verge of depression which may be similar to that of 1929 to 1933.

This is the very psychology that frightens people into a depression. There may easily be a short period of tightening up, although signs began to appear last week that the continent is approaching the end of the "tight money" period.

There are many marginal businesses, expanded away beyond their means which could go under if the trend continues downward but we do not see the need to get so excited about it. As a matter of fact, 1957 has been the best year in history for many enterprises.

We must remember the great message of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt in his inaugural address of March 4th, 1933, "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

We have in Canada many instances of pump priming and social security measures which can offset depressional influences. There are the baby bonus, the old age pensions and unemployment insurance, none of which existed in the last depression. We have modern economic thought at the head of our government to offset with public works the problems of unemployment.

There was similar fright in 1946 immediately after the war which was offset by the innate buoyancy of spirit and encouragement which turned the economic signs of depression away, bringing good fortune to all.

We do not wish to see a depression and the most important thing is to stop depressional thinking. Let the voices and purveyors of gloom be stillled. They are frightening people into inaction.

The October meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church W.M.S. was held in the Church Parlours with an encouraging attendance. A hearty welcome to each member present was expressed by the President, Mrs. E. Foster. A fine poem on "Thanksgiving" was read by Mrs. Foster. If we are truly thankful for all the Lord has done for us we should do our utmost to be present at our Church meetings in order that we may know what our Missionaries on the foreign fields are doing for us.

All joined in singing the hymn, "Come All Ye Thankful People, Come." The Scripture Lesson from Psalm 100 was read by Mrs. L. Dafoe. Prayer was offered by Mrs. E. Foster. We should have Communion with God. We are living in crucial times so we should pray for our Missionaries who may be in greater danger at this time. The roll call was taken by Mrs. E. Foster with "thanksgiving" as the keyword. Let us strive to get a better knowledge of the Bible.

The visiting committee for next month is Mrs. Roy Eggleton and Mrs. Harper Rollins. At this season of the year we should keep in mind the sick and shut-ins.

The second part of the meeting was in charge of Mrs. George Saries. The hymn, "We Plough the Field and Scatter," was sung.

The topic on "Thanksgiving" was taken by Mrs. Harold McGee. God gives us strength for the day. We should be thankful to the Most High. We should do our best today for we will never have today again. When we think of the early pilgrims and compare what we have today with what they had to endure, we should be truly thankful.

A solo by Mrs. Don Rodgers, "Let Us Thank Thee O Lord," was enjoyed. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Vernon Matthews.

A paper on "Thanksgiving" was read by Miss Gena Spry. If God had not made the grass grow, if He had not such infinite love for us, we would be in a bad way. Again we owe a debt of gratitude to the Most High.

A paper on "Housecleaning" was given by Mrs. Don Farsey. Our lives are full of sin. We should houseclean all the sins from our lives, deceit and jealousy should be all cleaned out.

The benediction brought the meeting to a close. The committee, Mrs. Harold McGee, Mrs. Don Farsey, Mrs. Geo. Saries and Mrs. Vernon Matthews served delightful afternoon tea. Mrs. Earl Fox on behalf of the ladies, expressed their thanks to the committee.

Fire Safety Hints

Get out of the house the minute you discover a fire or smell smoke.

Don't fling doors open if you think there's a fire — feel them first and if they're hot, get out another way or block the doors with furniture or wet mattresses to keep out smoke and gases.

Remember, the air is usually better near the floor in a smoke-filled building.

Hold your breath if you have to make a dash through smoke or flame. Don't jump from upper-story windows except as a last resort — wait for the firemen.

Don't ever go back into a burning building for any reason — smoke and fire gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly.

Unless it's a small fire and you're certain you can control it with the right extinguisher, don't waste your time or your life by trying to fight a fire — get away from it and call the fire department at once — they know how to fight it.

Always be ready to use different escape routes from any room in your house — important to remember too when entering any other building.

If you're burned or exposed to fire and smoke, get medical treatment at once ... seemingly minor burns or smoke inhalation can have fatal results.

Let's grow up — not burn up.

Fire Safety Hints

For Baby Sitters

You are vested with a very great responsibility inasmuch as you are responsible for the safety of the children you are sitting with and the property of your employer. To aid you in this responsibility, we offer the following suggestions:

1. Be sure you are familiar with the house in which you are working.

2. Be sure you know the quickest route to evacuate the children from the house in case of emergency.

3. Ask your employer how to control the heating appliance in case this should be necessary.

4. If a fire should occur, wrap the children in blankets — do not take time to dress them — then remove them from the house. Call the Fire Department. Your Fire Chief requests that you call the Fire Department as soon as possible by telephoning from

Belleville Presbyteral W.M.S. West Section Holds Fall Rally

At the historic Stone Church on the Sidney Circuit of the United Church of Canada, the Autumn W.M.S. Rally of Belleville West Section was held October 4th. Some 76 representatives from 20 Auxiliaries and Affiliated Societies were registered.

Mrs. George Carlisle, of Stirling, Presbyteral Vice-President of the Section, presided, with Mrs. D. Luery, Stirling, acting as Secretary. The theme underlying the day's program was that used by the Dominion Board, W.M.S. at their annual meeting, "What doth the Lord require of us?"

Worship
After the opening hymn, morning devotions were led by members of the Wallbridge Auxiliary. Mrs. Harold Garrison read the lesson from Isaiah 53 and Mrs. Alpin Alfordson gave a short talk on the lesson and closing prayer was offered by Mrs. S. Nicolson.

Afternoon worship was conducted by Salem W.A. Affiliated Society, with Mrs. Albert Twidley, Mrs. Frank McGee and Mrs. Munrey Johnston, the President, taking part. Based on Ephesians 4: 1-23, the thought was stressed that Christianity is a growth which should never stop, and we are required to contribute that which we possess toward the extension of God's Kingdom. In the old-time copy books, the writer tried to make his writing more perfect as he continued down the page, to finally reach perfection. So, daily, may we try more earnestly for perfection in following the example of Jesus.

Mrs. J. A. Detlor, President of the hostess Auxiliary, and the Rev. R. McMullen, minister of Sidney Circuit, extended a warm welcome to the women assembled.

Literature Display

Mrs. Percy MacMullen, of Stirling, was very busy at the Literature table, where she had many splendid books on display. She gave an excellent resume of the latest helps on Stewardship, Christian Citizenship, Devotional helps, and books for all the younger groups. The Book Shelf and new study books on Japan were introduced. "Facts and Figures," the annual report of the Dominion Board, and "Missionaries Reporting," are a must for every Auxiliary. The use of membership cards was stressed, not only for the Annual members, but also for the Associate members. Mention was made of the splendid article on Japan, as written in a recent copy of the Reader's Digest.

The offering was taken and dedicated by members of Bayside Auxiliary, Mrs. W. Jones, Mrs. L. Hunt and Mrs. J. Percival, after which the 1st Vice-President, Mrs. C. Holmes, of Belleville, brought greetings from Mrs. L. Elliott, President of Presbyteral, and introduced the guest speaker, Miss Violet Saunders, W.M.S. Missionary on furlough from Japan, where for years she has been doing educational work. Members of Presbyteral assisting in the day's programme were also introduced.

Secretaries Offer Good Suggestions

Mrs. R. G. Coulter, Treasurer, and Mrs. F. C. Adsett, Christian Stewardship Secretary, both of Belleville, together presented the ever increasing needs in the Missionary work, which necessitated increased allocations to fully making out the report at the end of the year and sending it in on time. Auxiliary women were urged to stand behind their Mission Band Presidents in every possible way.

Mrs. D. Baxter, of Bloomfield, told of the great need for more fulltime workers in the church and showed interesting slides of work done by the graduates of the United Church Training School in Toronto. At the school this year there are 14 first year and 12 second year students.

Miss Saunders Addresses Afternoon Meeting

After an excellent dinner served by the women of Stone Church, the afternoon was given over to the guest speaker, Miss Violet Saunders, from Japan.

Some beautiful slides were first shown, giving the women an idea of the beauty of the country, with its mountain slopes of orange trees, and life in and around the school in Tokyo. Japan has a civilization of 2600 years. In 1959 they will celebrate the 100th year of the Protestant Mission in Japan. Some time ago the Roman Catholic Church celebrated their 400th year there. About $800,000 are Christian — one-half of one per cent of the population — truly a minority.

Before the war Japan was thinking of what she could do to make East Asia bow to her, but now, she seems to be ready to give priority to the creation of a right spirit among her neighbours, the Koreans, and those of the Phillipines and Islands of East Asia.

Miss Saunders told of the All Asia Conference at Baguio in the Phillipines, and the miraculous results in the lessening of bitterness and bringing about reconciliation.

There is a young adult leadership group with a youth organization of 430,000 members. A new spirit has arisen. The Japanese are a people who are seeking a faith, an ideology. They have lost the faith they had in their leadership. They are learning English as a means of communication with their neighbours, in Indonesia, Burma, and isles of the Pacific. The World Christian Education Convention is meeting in Japan in 1958. Though small in size, Japan could become a lighthouse, as it were, for all of Asia.

There followed a story of how the Holy Spirit entered into the life of one village, and in two years, like leaven, had worked miracles, so that men began to try to solve practical issues on the basis of a humble heart. A revolution of self is the greatest revolution of all. When we are willing to give up those things we cherish — for the good of others, a new world is in the making. We may yet have that harvest for which we pray in Japan.

Many attractive Japanese articles were on display, personal belongings of Miss Saunders.

At the close of this stirring address the audience stood as Mrs. Carlisle offered prayer for our missionaries and their work.

Mission Band Sings

A pleasing part of the afternoon programme was two musical numbers given by 17 members of Stone Church Mission Band.

Eggleton Auxiliary received and dedicated the afternoon offering, those in charge being Mrs. W. McMullen, Mrs. C. Fitchett and Mrs. Bruce Stapley.

Invitation To Centenary

For 1958 Rally

Mrs. C. Holmes again spoke briefly of our missionaries and other Christian leaders who give such Christian leadership in social, economic and political fields. How can we be like warm in our work? Are we justly sharing and witnessing for Christ? What does the Lord need of me? Of you? God requires each of us to do the best he can in the job undertaken.

Mrs. S. W. Spafford, of Belleville, Past President of the Bay of Quinte Conference Branch, gave some highlights from the Whitby School for Leaders held in August. It was an inspiring story of study, worship, fellowship and recreation.

Some people may be near-sighted in their view of church work; some others may be far-sighted, but what we need is bi-focals to see the far and the near view, and our responsibility in both.

An invitation was accepted to hold the 1958 Rally in Centenary Church.

Closing

Mrs. Fred Wilson presented the certificates expressing appreciation for the use of the church and the gracious hospitality of its women; to the guest speaker, Miss Saunders, for her wonderful address and pictures; to the pianist, Mrs. Harley Hamilton, of Aikens; to the Mission Band who sang and their organist; to Presbyteral secretaries and Mrs. Carlisle, and all who had in any way helped to make the Rally so successful.

With the words, "The love that unites us is greater than the differences that divide," the Vice-President closed the session with hymn 488, "Come let us sing of a wonderful love." Rev. McMullin pronounced the benediction.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

VIOLENCE CONDONED

I've been reading the decision of Mr. Justice John Kearney of the Exchequer Court of Canada holding that the men who refused to cross a picket line are entitled to draw unemployment insurance.

Unemployment insurance for what? They have jobs to go to. Harding Carpets Limited, of Brantford, Ontario did not fire them — it wanted them to work. They could have crossed the picket line. The law of peaceful picketing does not condone violence and intimidation of non-striking workers.

Then why do the rest of us have to pay them Unemployment Insurance?

The reason is a shocking one. Justice Kearney ruled as he did because it was clear that these people were too frightened to cross that picket line. There was definitely fear of violence and bodily harm — so much fear that Justice Kearney felt the workers were justified in not crossing the picket line for fear they'd get hurt physically.

I am not blaming Justice Kearney for this finding; he probably had no alternative but to interpret the Unemployment Insurance Act as he did. Unfortunately, this action appears to condone illegal conduct in picketing.

What is the matter with Ontario that it does not enforce the law of peaceful picketing?

Things have come to a pretty pass when a court ruling implies that it would be bodily dangerous in the province of Ontario to cross a picket line — so dangerous that workers who refuse to do it are considered jobless, and the rest of Canada must pay them Unemployment Insurance!

Many of us here in Western Canada have known cases where employees contributed to Unemployment Insurance for years — but when they needed it, and made application, they were treated mighty coolly by the Unemployment Insurance clerks. It was made mighty tough for them to collect a single cent, even though they'd been paying for a long time and were now genuinely unemployed. Yet Ontario workers, frightened by a picket line, have no trouble getting a court decision that they must be paid.

What will happen now? Ontario labor will work this picket-line bogey for all it's worth. A handful of pickets waving sticks can put hundreds of non-striking workers on the Unemployment Insurance payroll and the thousands of contributors who never expect to get a nickel back from their donations will foot the bill.

Fire Prevention

Week Oct. 5 to 12

Proclaiming October 6th to 12th as Fire Prevention Week, Governor-General Vincent Massey has drawn urgent attention to the national importance of the protection of life, property and natural resources from fire.

In the last 10 years, His Excellency states, fires in Canada have taken a tragic toll of 5,082 lives and have burned and disfigured at least 16,000 persons. The direct financial loss of $647,000 fires in the decade was $878 million. In 1956 alone, the death toll in 83,000 fires was 601 and the cost of these fires in the communities and countryside of Canada's 10 provinces was $115 million. The figures include Yukon and the North West Territories. They do not include forest fire losses, approaching another $15 million.

As the Association of Canadian Fire Marshals and the Canadian Association of Fire Chiefs jointly point out, one single fire in which 601 persons perished and $115 million of property destroyed would constitute one of Canada's greatest national disasters.

And such a conflagration would rate as one of the worst in all world history. Only six lives, for example, were lost in the Great Fire of London in 1666.

Because human carelessness and neglect is the cause of most fires, a programme of public education was deemed to be the most effective way of meeting the shocking situation in Canada. And for the past three years, the two Associations, representative of the army of Canada's 27,000 firemen — professional and volunteer — have energetically pursued their jointly-sponsored crusade.

The appeal is directed especially to the home. It is in the home that most fires and most deaths occur — especially tragic because of the victims are children, women and folk of senior years.

But while the appeal is highlighted each year during Fire Prevention Week in October — the start of the long winter period of cold weather — surely one of the great battles of peacetime — can surely if slowly prevail, is the belief of the fire services and the many agencies which contribute wholeheartedly to the cause — this newspaper among them.

Old Forge Inn Farm Owned By Only Four Families

E. D. KETCHESON, FORMER RESIDENT OF STIRLING, IS NOW THE PRESENT OWNER

Only four families have operated the farm now known as Old Forge Inn, owned by Everett K. Ketcheson, since it was first cleared in 1817 by Cornelius Huyck.

Overlooking the west end of Well's Bay where both Indian canoes and white men's sailing vessels once plied the blue waters, the Ketcheson farm still holds many relics of the long-gone time when pioneers like Cornelius Huyck and later John Johnston, cleared and tilled the land, erected their own buildings and forged their own equipment.

Its present picturesque name is derived from a giant forge and hand operated bellows in a small old, weather-beaten, but still strong frame building a short distance east of the house, on a gentle slope near the edge of the bay. Still operative, the big forge is built of stones, and the great bellows can be easily operated by one hand.

It was built in the days when the first owner of the farm, located now at R.R. 3, Conseccon, and part of what was known as "the Stinson block" did his own blacksmithing, made horseshoes, nails and other sundry parts used in house and barn, both for himself and the few neighbours near at hand. Cornelius Huyck it was who first cleared the land and built a home there. In 1817 the farm was purchased by John Johnston, who proceeded to clear more of it, and to maintain the forge.

The south end of the present farm house was built about 1803, probably by the men who sold the land to Mr. Huyck. On the indenture dated in 1818 their names are given as Joseph and Stephen Bowerman, executors of the estate of one Gaion Bowerman. In 1882 Mr. Johnston added more to the building.

When Mr. Johnston died in 1883 his sons William and Murney took over the farm, and the last members of the family to run it were Miss Annie Johnston and her brother John, who now live in Conseccon.

The Johnstons made their own sugar from the maple bush on the farm. The wooden sap buckets which they made themselves can still be seen on the farm.

In the building which houses the forge are other relics of the past, an old shingle shaver, a grindstone believed to date back to the 18th century (about 1771) and a net reel, evidently used by Cornelius Huyck, who fished the bay, in addition to farming and blacksmithing.

In the early days of the farm, grain was shipped via three masted sailing vessels from two docks in Conseccon, out through Well's Bay to Lake Ontario.

Both house and barn, and other outbuildings were clearly built for strength and durability. Great stones were used in the foundation of the house, and huge upright beams form the wall supports. Pine and oak boards for the floors were hewn and trimmed by the settlers themselves. Typical of their Herculean labours is a giant beam in the barn, which is 30 feet long, 27 inches deep and 14 inches wide, and on the top is arched for added strength. It is said that when the big beam was put in place there were not enough men in the country to lift it, and outside help had to be imported.

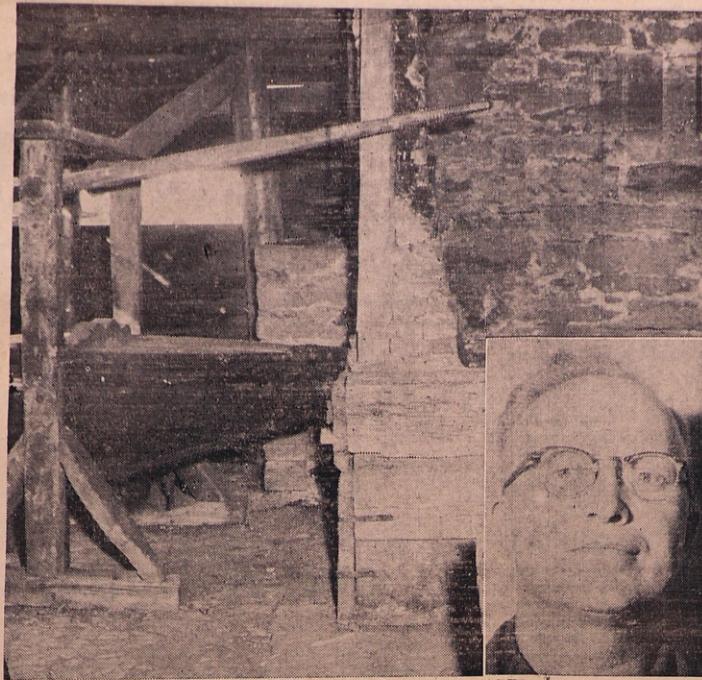

In 1942 the Johnstons sold the farm to Carman Mastin, now of Stirling, from whom Mr. Ketcheson, also of Stirling, purchased it one year ago. At present there are 170 acres to the farm. Mr. Ketcheson is modernizing the home and adding other buildings to make a tourist camp near the bay. Mr. and Mrs. Ketcheson have four children. One daughter, Marjorie, is a nurse in training at Belleville General Hospital. The other children are Douglas 12, Lyle 7 and Bruce 3.

Mr. Ketcheson intends to preserve the many historic relics around the farm, and convert the small building housing the forge into combination museum and snack bar. —Trenton Courier-Advocate.

MAINTAINING QUALITY OF EGGS IN STORAGE

In Canada only one process is used with any degree of success in storing eggs for long periods. It consists of immersing the eggs in a colourless, odourless, tasteless mineral oil for several seconds, and after draining a few minutes, immediately packing the eggs in new packing material and moving to a cold storage room. These storages must be capable of being maintained at a controlled temperature of 30 degrees F. and a relative humidity of 86 per cent.

Some folks condemn the worry habit one minute and then practice it the next.

Mrs. Ketcheson shows an old hand made pall made by one of the four owners of the farm. The stone with a circular hole in it was taken from the ceiling in the older part of the house. NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

PLOW ADJUSTMENTS IMPORTANT FOR PROPER OPERATION

Is your plow maladjusted?

A survey made some time ago in Ontario showed that 9 out of 10 tractor plows were adjusted improperly.

With the International Plowing Match lending prominence to good plowing from October 15th to October 18th near Simcoe, all farmers might take a second look at the adjustment of their plows to bring the standard of their plowing up to that of the experts.

Basically, there are three adjustments to a plow, says Prof. Don Clark, Department of Engineering Science, Ontario Agricultural College. These are: the heel clearance adjustment, the landside pressure adjustment, and the coulter adjustment.

Heel clearance is the measurement between the bottom of the landside and the bottom of the furrow. If the landside does not have a replaceable heel casting, the clearance when measured on a hard surface, should be one-quarter of an inch for hard dry soils, and up to half an inch for soft, moist soils. If the landside does have a replaceable heel casting, the casting should leave a slight mark in the bottom of the furrow when plowing.

The landside pressure adjustment when adjusted properly on three-wheeled plows reduced the draft by causing some of the side thrust of the plow to be carried on the rear wheel instead of being carried on the landside of the plow bottom.

On two-wheeled plows, as well as on mounted plows, there is usually no special adjustment for landside pressure; the horizontal hitch of the plow to the tractor or the design of the bracket that attaches the rolling landside to the plow beam usually controls the landside pressure.

On three-wheeled plows the landside pressure is checked by laying a straight edge against the point of the share and against the rear wheel. Then the distance from the rear of the landside to the straight edge is measured. The measurement should be between a quarter and three-eighths of an inch.

The coulter adjustment is important. The adjustment of any rolling coulter is affected by the condition of the soil to be plowed and the sharpness of the coulter itself. The coulter can be adjusted three ways.

The first adjustment is the depth

Also found in the building on the stone, believed to have been made in Ketcheson farm is this ancient grind- 1771. —Courtesy Courier-Advocate.

This was a shingle shaver. Almost perfectly preserved, it is housed in the building which Mr. Ketcheson inof cut. The general setting is one and a half to two inches clearance between the point of the share and the cutting edge of the coulter blade. If the soil is very hard or the coulter dull, it will be necessary to increase this clearance so that the plow will not "ride" on the coulter and thus not allow the plow to penetrate to the desired depth.

The second adjustment is the position of the coulter on the plow beam. The usual position is to have the bearing of the coulter directly above the point of the share.

The third adjustment concerns the clearance between the coulter and the landside. The easiest way to set the coulter to the land is to hold a board which is three-eighths to three-quarters of an inch thick, on edge against the landside and extending forward beyond the point of the share. Then the coulter shank should be adjusted until the coulter is parallel to the board.

These basic adjustments should be made before the plow is taken into the field. Then these adjustments can be modified in the field to suit various soil conditions. Hitch adjustments can easily be made in the field.

The instruction book obtained with the plow should be followed closely.

GIRL, 8, KILLED

Gail McAuley, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McAuley, of Sidney Township, was fatally injured Saturday when her bicycle was struck by a car near her home. Driver of the car was Marilyn Elmy, of Belleville.

Motorists are warned that it is a breach of the Highway Traffic Act to pass a school bus when it is stopped to pick up or unload children. Some local bus drivers report not a few motorists are not observing this rule. They are likely to be reported as it is a dangerous practice. When the bus is stopped, children may dart from the side of the road or out of the bus. A few minutes saved may mean a lifetime of regret.

France's most popular small car, the Renault Dauphine, which is rolling off the assembly line at the rate of 900 a day, has nothing to fear from the competition of these tiny newcomers. Buyers have to wait more than a year for delivery of this car and 100 are being shipped to the United States every day.

The Dauphine has four doors, a 845 cc engine at the back, a top speed of about 64 miles an hour and gives about 45 miles to the gallon.

Dining Out

Many people find it necessary to take their meals at public eating places but care should be taken in the selection of such places. There are many ways of discovering whether the restaurant is a safe place at which to eat — china will be clean and free from chips that could harbour germs; table covers or tops will be kept clean and dry; food will not be left on shelves exposed to flies or dust; washrooms will be clean and sanitary and there will be no vermin. Unclean conditions in any public eating place should be reported to the local health department so that action may be taken to have the place cleaned up, for the sake of public health.

Pot Luck Supper And Programme In Parish Hall — Presentations Are Made

St. John's Anglican congregation said farewell to Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Secker and family last night with a get-together in the Parish Hall, at which over a hundred were in attendance. Rev. Secker has been rector of the local parish for the past six years and has been appointed rector of St. Luke's Anglican Church, Kingston, to take effect November 1st.

Following a delicious pot-luck dinner Geo. Noble, Rector's Warden, called the gathering to order and Fred W. Houchin acted as master of ceremonies and presided at the piano for a splendid programme which opened with a round of community singing. Tap dance numbers were given by Miss Barbara Woodbeck and Miss Hendricks, of Belleville. Readings were given by Mrs. J. Weatherall and Mrs. Reg Coombes and Miss Marjorie McArton contributed a vocal solo. Mrs. Geo. Noble conducted a contest on scrambled names of members of the parish.

Harry Wickett, the People's Warden, read an appreciative address and made the presentation of a purse of money and a camera to Rev. Secker on behalf of the congregation. Geo. Noble also presented a camera to John Secker.

On behalf of the A.Y.P.A. Ron Woodbeck read an address and Misses Grace Clarke and Sally Coombes presented Robert and Martin Secker with leather wallets.

Mrs. B. Woodbeck read an address on behalf of St. John's Ladies' Guild and presented Mrs. Secker with a step table.

The remainder of the evening was spent in a social time with round and square dancing being enjoyed. Music was provided by Stuart McArton, Marjorie McArton, Ron Woodbeck, Barbara Woodbeck and Ruth Mumby.

Apple Day Saturday, Oct. 19th

Once more the Cubs and Scouts will be out on Saturday offering apples for sale to augment their finances for the coming year.

In Stirling there is a full group, consisting of Cubs, Scouts and Rovers, in all over 100 boys and leaders.

As there is yet no sale for paper the Scout Association is finding it very difficult to keep on top and must rely on the generosity of the citizens.

All Scout supplies have increased in price, with badges going up five cents each.

The money raised on Apple Day is spent on the boys. It does not go out-of-town to help anything else, so when you meet a boy on Saturday, just remember that whatever you give, you are giving to help make that boy into a man and a good citizen.

So buy an apple and help to give the boys the outside life they should have under proper supervision.

Centennial Book Committee Asks Co-operation of District Citizens

On Tuesday night the Centennial Book Committee met to consider material already submitted for the forthcoming Centennial Book. Those who have their data completed are to be complimented and also commended for the promptness they have exhibited in compiling information so rapidly.

Prices are now in hand from those who have been asked for quotations. The committee was happy to welcome a representative from one of the printing houses and appreciated his advice and experience in assisting with plans to be considered.

It is expected that our book will be composed of approximately 100 pages, half of which will be advertising and good wishes from those who desire to make a contribution in that way. About one quarter of the remainder should be pictorial — so we still need the assistance of all citizens in procuring the right type of pictures. We require old pictures of landmarks or prominent early citizens in the hope that from some of them comparisons with present day surroundings may be arranged, thereby increasing interest in the advance of the century.

Any pictures therefore, accounts of early events and other original items of importance will be carefully preserved, used if possible, and returned in the same condition as received to anyone who is willing to share their treasures with Stirling citizens of the past, present or future.

Minister of External Affairs The Unanimous Choice of P.C.'s

Convention Held In Madoc Thursday Afternoon Last — Prime Minister Spoke

The Honorable Sidney Earle Smith, P.C., Q.C., B.A., M.A., LL.B., D.C.L., F.R.S.C., was unanimous choice of the Progressive Conservative delegates at a convention held in Madoc on Thursday last to select a candidate for the forthcoming bye-election in Hastings-Frontenac.

Hopes For Acclamation

Dr. Smith and his friends have obvious hopes of an acclamation, with other parties abstaining. Meanwhile, the nomination meeting made him its unanimous choice and Senator White, who first won the constituency in 1940 was confident that, opposed or unopposed, Dr. Smith would be his successor.

Dr. Smith was sworn in as Secretary of State for External Affairs on September 13th and went to work for Canada and the United Nations immediately. Busy as he was as president of the University of Toronto, he has known as faster pace since.

Thursday, after a cabinet meeting in Ottawa, he boarded an amphibian plane with the Prime Minister and flew to Moira Lake, was caught up in a parade led by the Madoc band which delivered them into the care of four pipers who brought them marching into the armories with a fine martial step.

HON. SIDNEY EARLE SMITH

Senator White's Remarks

Senator White, himself a veteran, proudly recalled the record of Hastings-Frontenac in providing fighting men in two wars. He remembered Dr. Smith's World War I service as a gunner and Royal Flying Corps pilot in training. Mr. Diefenbaker recalled Dr. Smith was off to a good start by being born in the Maritimes, became even better when he went to live in the West and then (the audience cheered) came to Ontario.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker spoke of the responsibilities faced by this man he had considered most suitable for the External Affairs post. He recalled that Dr. Smith in World War I had been a gunner, and reached the exalted rank of acting sergeant (without pay).

Dr. Smith

Gunner Smith, taking his place at the microphone with the grace of an experienced speaker, hastened to explain the acting sergeant rank was only for a few months. All he could say about his war record was that he had no lost ground. He had started the war a gunner and ended it a gunner.

His friends had never accused him of being tongue-tied, he said, but he was at a loss to express his appreciation of the unanimous nomination.

The Prime Minister had called him without warning, asking if he would be Secretary of State for External Affairs. Dr. Smith, in his Toronto office, then remembered the number of times he had told students to interest themselves in public affairs and how could he refuse?

Salutes PM.

He turned to the Prime Minister and saluted you as Canada's leader."

He recalled the remark of a Liberal minister that in the last government there had been too great a distance between "the brass and the grass." "With a name like Smith you can't be brassy," said Dr. Smith. He hoped the people of the constituency would help him keep the brass and grass together.

World Dangers

He went soberly on to speak of the dangers of the world situation and the awful consequences which could follow defeat if World War III came. He prayed the United Nations and other agencies for peace would succeed, but there was danger in disarming while the Russians continued to build their forces.

Canada must think for herself in foreign policy and she should not be a pale reflection of policies formulated in other countries.

At a recent UN meeting he had made his maiden speech there when welcoming Malaya as a new member. Britain made colonies into nations while Russia made nations into colonies.

Problems between Canada and the United States could be solved; Canada could have no more generous neighbour.

Canada As Mediator

Canada was well fitted for a mediating role as a federation of many races. Unity was not uniformity.

Liberal governments had gone to Quebec and falsely claimed that English-speaking Canada sought to restrict or wipeout Quebec traditions. That false propaganda divided the country. He knew the Conservative government would never "engage in that political game" damaging to unity.

The pipes played again when the meeting was over, Gordon K. Fraser, M.P. for Peterborough; James Baskin, M.P. for Renfrew South and George Doucett, M.P. for Lanark, among those on the platform tapping time to the music.

Mr. Diefenbaker and Dr. Smith came down among the crowd. An aide told them that the plane wanted to get away in a few minutes to be in Ottawa before dusk. Thirty minutes later the two were still there, talking to children, trading recollections with veterans, shaking hands with men and women from 92 years down.

Became Canadian To Join Husband Former Stirling Boy

President Eisenhower recently signed a bill restoring U.S. citizenship to a woman who gave it up in order to get a Canadian passport and thus join her husband in South Africa.

Virginia Ray Potts, who was born in Minneapolis in 1913 and now lives in Greenwich, Conn., was married in 1936 to James E. Potts, a native of Stirling, Ontario, in New York City. They left for India where he was employed. In 1942, after the U.S. had entered World War II, she was evacuated to the U.S. along with wives and families of other members of her husband's company's staff in India.

In 1943 she sought to join her husband in South Africa but was denied a passport by the state department which held that travel was not essential.

She then went to Canada, renounced her U.S. citizenship in order to get a Canadian passport, and joined her husband in South Africa. She said that was her sole purpose in giving up her U.S. citizenship.

for a year or more and made no effort to "settle up," you would make every effort to collect the two-and-a-half spot whether it made me "mad" or not, wouldn't you? And you would not be anxious to sell me anything more until I had arranged payment. Then suppose that in addition to me, Smith and Jones and Brown, and Whosis owed you each $2.50. Including my debt that makes $12.50 coming to you, and no one paying, each one of your debtors saying: "Why it's only $2.50, what's the hurry?" — but when the $2.50 is multiplied 5 times it's $12.50, and when it's multiplied by hundreds it's a lot of money."

Subscribers to The News-Argus number into the hundreds. Each receive The News-Argus every week. The paper, ink and workmanship which enter into it are paid for every week. The subscriptions come due but once a year — Just $2.50 — multiplied by hundreds!

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

$920,470.00!

That, my friends, is a whooping big sum of money.

I noticed it in the financial report of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, and it shocked me.

This sum is not for programmes. You'd never guess what it is for, and you'll find it hard to believe when I tell you.

That sum — almost a cool million dollars — was for CBC's Press and Information Service.

Now every editor gets envelopes stuffed with mimeographed publicity sheets from the CBC. But not by any stretch of the imagination could these cost close to a million dollars in a year — or even five years.

How is the money spent?

I guess is that the CBC spends far too much on propaganda and not enough on programmes. If it would spend the money on good radio and TV shows it wouldn't need to try so hard to sell itself and the idea of State Broadcasting to the people.

If the CBC is spending this huge sum on those mimeographed publicity sheets it ought to cut it out right now and buy space in the papers. For that kind of money, it could run quite a number of fine advertisements about its sustaining programmes in the newspapers of Canada.

Of course, this propaganda fund is not the only alarming thing about the current CBC financial report. Many other figures are equally startling, when compared to the money that is actually paid out to performers. When you study the report, you begin to wonder if the CBC's main ambition has much to do with programming at all.

For example, I heard the other day that CBC is adding another facet to its Press and Information Service, and that Ron Nickerson, formerly with British United Press, will be handling it for them. Ron's function, so I'm told will be "liaison with members of Parliament." Is that a fancy new name for lobbying? And how much will it cost?

It seems to me that the Progressive Conservatives ought to get busy at once and put an end to some of the more ridiculous CBC expenditures. Let the money be spent on programs where it is needed, and not on frills.

Performers are charging that they're not getting the money CBC spreads around so lavishly. I tried to find out, from the CBC's report, where it is going. It was pretty hard to find out. Only in their report on the International Service do they show the sums actually paid to performers. I'd like to know what CBC Domestic — where the big money is — pays to its performers.

A good look beats good luck in the job of safe driving. — Drive Safely.

New Model 1958 Chevrolet Trucks Go On Display October 31st

An expanded, widely diversified line of Chevrolet trucks featured by a rugged new 348-cubic inch V-8 of 230 horsepower, many chassis improvements, and more powerful and durable sixes and V-8's is announced by General Motors of Canada, Limited.

Fresh new front-end styling includes modern dual headlamps and redesigned grille, hood and fenders.

Scheduled for display at dealer showrooms nationally concurrent with the debut of 1958 Chevrolet passenger cars October 31st, the new truck line lists 12 new models, for a total of 128 up to 10 per cent over the number available in 1957.

For the first time, Chevrolet will assume body production responsibility for three forward control "Step Van" models. The same warranty and parts service will be extended to these bodies that now apply to company-built panels, pickups, and cab chassis models.

Also of major interest is the addition to the line of nine new medium-duty cab-chassis models. Six, including three low Cab Forwards, carry 72-inch cab-to-axle dimensions for more ideal weight distribution in trailer operations. Three new models have a 124-inch cab-to-axle dimension to accommodate 16'-to-20' foot bodies.

Another innovation in the 1958 line is the assigning of names to each of the three weight classifications. They are:

The Apache — Light-duties with GVW ratings up to 9600 lbs., and available on six different wheelbases;

The Viking — Medium-duties, available in 12 wheelbases with GVW ratings up to 21000 lbs.; and

The Spartan — Heavy duties with GVW ratings up to 36,000 lbs., and offered on nine wheelbases.

Five basic engines are offered in the 1958 truck line. The 235-cubic inch six has been increased to 145 horsepower through an increase in compression ratio. The 261-cubic inch six, featuring improved durability, is continued for medium duty trucks.

with a new rating of 150 horsepower.

A 283-cubic inch V-8, rated at 160 horsepower, now is optional equipment in light-duty models, replacing the 265-cubic inch V-8, which has been discontinued. The heavy-duty versions of this engine with 160 and 175 horsepower are optional in some series and standard in others.

The new 348-cubic inch, 230 horsepower "Workmaster" V8 and the 322-cubic inch VS, which is retained for 10,000 series school bus use only, complete the line.

The new large VS is specifically designed for heavy truck use and will be offered only in the two largest series as standard equipment. Bore and stroke dimensions are 4.125 and 3.25 inches. Compression ratio is 8 to 1. Despite its large displacement, the engine is unusually compact, measuring only one and three-quarters inches longer and less than three inches wider than the 283-cubic inch VS. It is actually one and one-third inches lower in height.

The high power output of the engine is derived from its unique design. The completely machined combustion chamber is located wholly within the cylinder bore. The top face of the block is machined at a 74 deg. angle to the centerline of the bore instead of the conventional 90 deg., inclining the head more toward the horizontal. The top of the cylinder thus is elliptical rather than round, making more space for larger valves, central location of the spark plug and staggered valve arrangement.

Exert-strength "peaked roof" aluminum pistons are positioned with one dome surface parallel to the plane of the flat head and the other at 32 degrees to it. The result is a thin squish and quench area in one half of the cylinder and a wedge-shaped combustion chamber in the other. The arrangement induces extreme turbulence in the fuel-air mixture and together with the short flame travel from the centrally located sparkplug induces high efficiency of combustion.

Many other heavy-service features for larger valves, central location of the spark plug and staggered valve arrangement.

The new "Step Van" parcel delivery models carry eight, ten, and twelve-foot bodies on 104, 125 and 137-inch wheelbases. Cargo space is 276.45, 334.21 and 392.1 cubic feet, respectively. Visibility and driver convenience are improved by ball bearing mounted front doors, folding seats, and other features designed to make multi-stop operations easier. GVW ratings are from 7,000 to 10,000 lbs., depending on tire, spring and axle options.

In appearance the new trucks carry have been built into the new engine. The large sodium-cooled exhaust valves are Stellite-faced and seat on replaceable Silichrome inserts. Rotators are the "rotocoil" type, resting against the head to relieve the hydraulic valve lifting mechanism of weight load. Intake valves faces are aluminum coated. Crankpins and main bearing journals are surface hardened. Main and connecting rod bearings are of premium heavy-duty alloy, Moraine 400. A roller-type chain is used for the camshaft drive for longer life and reduced stretch. A new configuration of the exhaust manifold minimizes back pressure and provides more efficient scavenging of spent gases through dual exhausts.

In line with its improved engine line, Chevrolet also is offering many improvements in chassis components. On its two heaviest single rear axle series, 18,000 lb. rear axles are standard and 9,000 lb. front axles are optional. Brakes are more durable and in some models are substantially larger. Two new 2-speed axle ratios are available.

On all heavy-duty models, cast spoke wheels now are standard and air brakes are optional except on the school bus. The air-over-hydraulic brake system is extended to include medium-duty models for the first time.

More flexible downhill control and added city driving convenience result from incorporation of a second drive range in the Powermatic, the automatic truck transmission with built-in hill retarder, pioneered by Chevrolet in 1955. The new range permits the operator to use the retarder in fifth gear as well as in second, fourth and sixth.

The new "Step Van" parcel delivery models carry eight, ten, and twelve-foot bodies on 104, 125 and 137-inch wheelbases. Cargo space is 276.45, 334.21 and 392.1 cubic feet, respectively. Visibility and driver convenience are improved by ball bearing mounted front doors, folding seats, and other features designed to make multi-stop operations easier. GVW ratings are from 7,000 to 10,000 lbs., depending on tire, spring and axle options.

metal design gives distinction to models in each weight class, although frontal styling of all models is substantially similar except for the Step-Van. Exterior changes have functional as well as style values. Modern dual head-lamps extend low beam visibility up to 50 feet further.

Contours of the broader new fenders and hood lend stiffness as well as style. Fender skirts are ribbed for more rigidity. The new grille designed for maximum radiator ventilation, also adds support to other front end sheet metal through common attachment.

Attractiveness of exteriors is matched by new smartness inside the roomy cabs. Long-wearing vinyl is featured in standard cabs with optional trim and appointments available.

Attention has been given to many other details in the 1958 truck line. The accelerator pedal has been rehinged for driving comfort. Hood-lift effort has been reduced from 35 lbs. to 10 on the larger models.

GOING EASY ON THE DOUGH

(The Printed Word)

Most people could save more money than they do. It is not so very difficult to draw up a budget; sticking to it is another thing. The easiest of all ways to save money is to show somebody else how to do it. Turning, then, towards Ottawa and the Diefenbaker Government, one place where there is substantial elbow room for savings, as shown in the estimates, is in departmental publishing. Reports, pamphlets, bulletins and miscellaneous publications of one kind and another tot up to a tidy bill at the Queen's Printer of some $7,500,000 a year. And, despite franking privileges, official Ottawa's annual postage bill is running around $5,700,000.

Travel is another item of government expense that looms large in the minds of taxpayers. The junketing around of members of the armed forces and their families, and of departmental officials, comes to the astonishing figure of $65,400,000 in the estimates for the fiscal year 1957-58.

Look at one more heading, "Special Services." Here is a really costly gravy boat, with contemplated outlays for lawyers, architects, engineers, analysts (presumably economic rather than psychoanalytic), accountants, translators, writers and others employed on a part-time or temporary basis, running to $82,000,000.

These are the figures as they stand now in the estimates. Anyone who has ever said to himself, "I gotta go easy on the dough" could surely find a few dollars to lop off those sums.

Safety Is New Project of Canadian Junior Red Cross

The promotion of safety for young people at home and at play is a new project of the Canadian Junior Red Cross.

The plan for the current school year is based on a classroom calendar now being distributed to schools throughout Canada. This colourful calendar outlines the various factors of safety for youth. It is accompanied by a teacher's guide for instructional purposes. The calendar was designed on the advice of leading safety officials in co-operation with educational authorities.

A miniature of the calendar is also being made available to school children at cost. These are intended for the youngsters' room in their homes and include a guide for parents to supplement the instructions given by teachers in the classrooms.

The project was announced by Dr. John T. Blair, national chairman of the Canadian Junior Red Cross. He said that safety authorities are alarmed by the increasing number of accidents among children in the home and at play.

"It is the hope of the Canadian Junior Red Cross that this project will make our youth more conscious of safety," he added. "The teachers of Canada have promised their full co-operation and their effort will give a new interpretation of the rules of safety to children in their care. This, supplemented by the interest of parents, will play a major role in the reduction of accidents of all kinds among our children."

Facts About Ontario Official Road Map

When motorists take to the highways for pleasure or for business a good road map is almost essential and serves as a useful source of reference for a great many things besides the shortest distance between points. That is why the Department of Highways will issue one million copies of the Official Road Map of Ontario for free distribution this year.

Since the Department issued its first map for the guidance of motorists in 1923 there have been great changes in the mileage and the condition of highways throughout the province. Today the Official Road Map of the province shows all the King's Highways and Secondary Highways as well as the principal county and district roads throughout both southern and northern Ontario. In all, the map shows more than 20,000 miles of highway and roads throughout the province.

It is not possible on any map to show all the roads that serve an area of 413,000 square miles which is the size of Ontario. There is a network of over 55,000 miles of roads in organized and unorganized townships which are not shown on the official road map but most of these roads are included in individual county and district maps compiled by the department. In addition there are also 7,900 miles of city, town and village streets which bring the total of roads and streets in the province to 33,500 miles.

There is a wealth of information contained in the official road map in spite of the fact that the map folds easily to a 4½ inch by 8 inch convenient pocket size. Mileage tables show the mileages on all King's Highways. Small insert maps show in some detail the King's Highways passing through 27 Ontario cities and intersections with main city streets. An index to all cities, towns and villages shown on the map also give the names of all the roads in the population figures for all but the smallest centres.

For the motorist, vacation bent, official government reception centres are listed and shown on the map. The location of government parks and campsites are clearly indicated and there is a useful index of all lakes with figures for altitude above sea level. The legend of the map shows divided highways, paved and improved highways and highways under construction. King's Highways and Secondary Highways are distinguished from county and other roads. Steamship routes, ferry crossings, international bridges and the principal highways in adjoining states and provinces are also shown.

Some of the important road signs used on the King's Highways are shown in colour and special reference is made to the rules of the road and the need for careful and safe driving. In case of emergency, the addresses and telephone number of provincial police district headquarters are given and the locations of 70 highway first aid posts are both listed and shown on the map.

In July of each year the Cartographic Section of the Department of Highways starts work on the Official Road Map for the following year. Working on a base map, the cartographers make all the changes that are necessary to bring the record up to date. Whenever a new road is built or the alignment of an existing road is changed the new map tells the story. Every effort is made to ensure that all names are spelled correctly and close contact is kept with the Canadian Board of Geographical Names which is accepted as the authority. Populations shown on the map are taken from the Municipal Directory published by the Department of Municipal Affairs.

A copy of the Official Road Map can be secured without charge on request to Information Section, Ontario Department of Highways, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ont.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

ONE MAN CARES
FOR 5,700 HENS

With only the part time help of his wife, Robert Mueller, whose farm is between Stratford and Palmerston, operates a 5,700 "hen factory," and says he could add another 2,000 birds with no extra help.

It is a quonset type aluminum building without windows, and looks like a skating rink, 192 feet by 36 feet. When a batch of chicks goes into this egg factory that is the last they see of daylight. A row of ordinary lights down each side of the building switch on and off automatically. They are on 14 hours a day.

Mr. Mueller can pack eggs directly into cases without washing as they come off an endless belt. The floor is of steel grid construction raised about 2½ feet off the ground. The mesh is wide enough for the droppings to fall through and there is never any wet litter. There isn't a wisp of straw around the place. Every installation is made of metal. The bottoms of the metal nests are tilted toward the rear and as each egg is laid it rolls onto an endless belt. The belt switch is turned on and the eggs come rolling out at the end of the day, when it is set in motion. No litter is used in the nests.

Producer dealer Jack Engeland, of Milverton, entered some of the eggs in the C.N.E. in August and won top prize for quality.

Automatic Feeding

In the centre of the building is a feed and egg room. Large overhead hoppers hold a one-week supply of feed. When the new plant is complete the feed will be brought in bulk truck from the mill and elevated into the hoppers with a grain screw. The flock eats about 1,300 to 1,400 pounds of feed a day, and produce ten 30-dozen cases of eggs. Feed is carried to them automatically in troughs which have 500 feet of endless chain in each pen.

AGRICULTURALISTS FROM U.S.A. VISIT CANADA

Whatever may be true of the making of better mousetraps, is likewise true of raising better pigs in Canada and corn in Indiana. People hear about it and come around to see and enquire.

Because Canada is doing a better job in the production of market hogs, the U.S. department of agriculture has sent seven specialists into this country to ask questions about methods. Washington wants to know cheddar cheese 76,252,000 pounds (66,878,000); ice cream 28,945,000 gallons (27,326,000) concentrated milk products 439,821,000 pounds (396,421,000); process cheese 32,044,000 pounds (33,582,000).

District Projects By Ontario Water Resources Com.

Ontario Water Resources Commission reports that at the end of September it was engaged in the construction of five water works and two sewage works for various municipalities. When completed, these projects will have cost more than $34 millions.

In addition, the Commission is negotiating with numerous other municipalities in need of sewage and water works, with additional contracts being let as these various projected works pass through all the preliminary discussion, engineering and financial stages.

Most costly work underway just now is at Stratford where a sewage treatment plant is being built at a cost of close to $900,000. At Toronto Township, sanitary trunk sewers are being laid at a cost of $267,000, following a pumping station and sewage treatment plant will be built. In all, this project will have cost close to $1,700,000 when completed.

Water works projects now underway are at Bancroft; $330,000; Have-lock, $180,000; Port Perry, $70,000; Dresden, $150,000; Sunderland, $97,000.

Projected works which will be undertaken when agreements and approvals are final include Bancroft, sewage; Trenton, sewage; Frankford, water; Markham Township, water; Harrow, water; Markham Village, sewage; London Twp. and Collingwood, sewage.

There are about 30 other projects in various stages of development.

Since 1951 the cost of operating the CBC has increased from $9.5 millions to more than $40 millions.

CONFERENCE CANCELLED

The annual federal-provincial agricultural conference at Ottawa is being cancelled for the first year since the Second World War. The main reason is that agriculture ministers from all provinces spent two days at the Capital several weeks ago in closed meetings with federal Agriculture Minister Harkness.

Inter. Plowing Match At Simcoe This Week

Canada's largest Agricultural Equipment Show, the International Plowing Match, got under way at Simcoe, Norfolk County on Tuesday, October 15th, with the official opening by Ontario's Minister of Agriculture, Hon. W. A. Goodfellow.

Plowmen from seven provinces are competing for the Canadian Championship and the right to enter the 1958 World Match in West Germany. Close to 600 entries were received from Ontario's contestants for the four day event where $15,000 is being offered in prizes. It is expected the Match will attract 100,000 visitors.

Creamery Butter Production Down

Creamery butter production in Canada dropped four per cent below last year's levels during the first nine months of this year, the bureau of statistics reports. Margarine output jumped 5.6 per cent in the same period.

Nine-month figures, with output a year earlier in brackets: Butter 241,276,000 pounds (251,699,000); margarine 95,187,000 pounds (90,102,000);

A Code of Honour

A code in which a man's word is as good as his bond.

Speaking from the depth of my faith in my work and life.

I believe the essence of literature is that a man shall speak to men and women as human beings. My purpose in life is to shape the word of humane imagination which shall give comfort and courage and perhaps vision to another man.

I honor the man to whom I would speak; his life, too, is sacred; he, too, lives in both tragedy and wonder; and the purpose of the word is to establish the reality of love between us.

I would not foist upon him careless art or wanton corruption of thought or a word in hatred of life.

I accept full moral and other responsibilities for the word I speak, or write to him.

But the greatness of life is not in either one of us alone; the good of life is between two persons when they meet each other in whole trust and give and respond to the word in truth.

I try, each new time I write, once more with clarity, justice, wisdom, to speak as nearly as I am able to the truth, with my heart open toward my Creator and toward mankind.

I am not the creator of the word. By my living of a man's life, with my heart open to communion with earth, with people and with God, the word is given into my hands as a workman, to shape as well as I am able, so that he to whom I offer it may respond to and share it in its life.

All of which is not vanity, but simply a matter of human responsibility, of answering by my life to another man's unspoken question: "What is your life?" There is, in our present day, a buried agony in this question which calls upon a man for his utmost manhood in answering it.

R. Gifford Baker, 73 Woodbine Ave., Toronto 8, Ont., the author of Provocative Thoughts now being published in Canadian Weekly Newspapers and one magazine, from Kingston, Ont. to Saskatchewan.

St. John's W.A. Holds Monthly

The October meeting of St. John's W.A. was held in the Parish Hall on Tuesday, October 8th with Mrs. J. S. Whitehead, Vice-President, in the chair. The meeting was opened by singing hymn 785, followed by the Member's Litany and Prayers. Mrs. Rodgers gave the Bible reading for the day taken from St. Luke.

Roll call was answered by each member giving the name of a Minister and his Parish in the Ontario Diocese.

Mrs. Whitehead read a report of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary held in St. Peter's Church, Brockville, with 141 members present. A letter from the Secretary-Treasurer of the Extra-Cent-A-Day Fund and one from the Living Message Secretary-Treasurer were read by Mrs. Whitehead.

The Treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Earl Morrow. Mrs. Frank Hardinge spoke of the Little Helpers and of the party to be given for them in the Parish Hall on Saturday, October 12th.

Mrs. Jackie Trow spoke of the J.A.'s, saying that their project is to send articles to a Mission in Japan.

Mrs. Secker took the last chapter of the study book, "East of Burma," dealing with Thailand, the Land of the Free. Thailand has never been a colony of any other country and was an absolute monarchy until just lately. Fortunately for the country the 19th Century Monarchs were strong and progressive. In 1932 with an almost bloodless revolution, a constitutional Monarchy came into power consisting of the Monarch plus a parliament. The chief religion is still Buddhism.

Mrs. Whitehead thanked Mrs. Secker for the splendid work she has done in St. John's W.A. during the years she has been here and spoke of the members' particular appreciation for her study book analyses. Mrs. Secker's resumes have always been excellent and we are going to miss her cheerful co-operation in all the Church groups.

Mrs. Rodgers read the story of the famous hymn, "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me," written by Hopper in 1871. It was sung at the Anniversary Services held in 1880 as the Hymn of the Sea.

Mrs. McMurray had prepared an interesting contest on the Bible.

Rev. Secker closed the meeting with prayer and later a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. H. Cooke and Mrs. McMurray. Mrs. Earl Morrow moved a vote of thanks to the hostesses.

St. John's Little Helpers

On Saturday at three o'clock the Little Helpers and members of the Junior Auxiliary with their mothers met at the Church for the annual service and party. Rev. H. C. Secker conducted the service and gave an illustrated talk on the meaning of "Opportunity."

Owing to the absence of the Secretary, Mrs. F. Harding, Mrs. Secker presented four Little Helpers to Mrs. F. Trow for membership in the J.A., Susan Murray, Linda Haggerty, Kathy Parsons and Bonnie Tanner. These were received with the proper ritual.

Mite boxes were presented and hymns sung. In the Hall, games were played and a dainty lunch served.

Mrs. Harding reported as follows:

The money sent in by the Little Helpers last year was carried by three Blue Birds of Happiness to help children in other lands.

Two of the birds flew away across the ocean to Japan and India. One left $170 in Japan to help train a teacher for the kindergarten. One bird flew to Amritsar where $100 was left to buy games and handicraft supplies for Rev. K. Coleman's school; it also left $50 at the new Ludhiana Hospital for the children's ward.

One Blue Bird stayed in Canada and left in Toronto $104 for the Sunday School of the Air, that boys and girls who live far from church can hear the lessons over the radio each Sunday. The rest of the pennies were used to pay pledges, fees and to buy supplies.

Over 3000 Little Helpers contributed money, so there is a large family of Helpers, to which we all belong. We have thirty three children on the roll, six moved away and 10 are over age this year. Twelve new members have been added, their names are: Wayne Kovach, Mark Shettell, Robin Royle, Pamela McNab, Paul Acker, Paul McCullough, Scott Sayers, Linda Hay-Ellis, Grant Carr, Allan Hood and John Mouck. Forty-six birthday cards have been sent out.

Mr. Gerald Bush, of Stirling, brother of the bridegroom, was groomsman, while Mr. Royden Davis, of Belleville, brother of the bride, and Mr. Carman Richards, of Wooler, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were ushers.

At the reception which was held at Lake View Inn, Papineau Lake, the guests were received by the bride's mother, who chose dusky rose brocade on charcoal taffeta, with matching accessories, and corsage of white carnations. She was assisted by the bridegroom's mother, wearing De Orr blue crepe with Valencines lace, with dusky rose accessories, and corsage of pink garnets.

Following the reception, the happy couple left for the east coast, the bride wearing light blue wool with black accessories, and corsage of pink garnets. Upon their return they will reside on the bridegroom's farm near Stirling.

Guests attended from Stirling, Belleville, Trenton, Pembroke, Midland, Creighton Mines, Peterborough and Braeside.

The bride was entertained previous to her marriage at a miscellaneous shower by members of the operating room of Belleville General Hospital

Traffic Safety Subject of Discussion At Weekly Meeting of Rotary

Sergt. J. Lewis, OPP, Belleville, Gives Address — Dr. Cornett Leads Discussion

"Practise driving defensively — try to think what the other motorist is going to do" was the advice given by Sergt. Jack Lewis, O.P.P., Belleville, to Rotarians and their guests on Tuesday night at a club meeting held in the I.O.O.F. Hall. Members of Laurel Rebekah Lodge served the dinner and H. C. Bird presided.

Dr. W. Cornett, chairman of the Traffic Safety Committee of the Rotary Club, in introducing the speaker, stated this subject was of paramount importance. Careless driving was prevalent in the community and something must be done to improve local conditions before some child is killed. The Rotarians would consider the meeting a decided success if definite action were taken by Council to improve the local conditions.

Sergt. Lewis

Sergt. Lewis, in his opening remarks, stressed the importance of safety and suggested the Village procure its own equipment to apprehend speeders and use it. It was the duty of every citizen to do his part in stopping the appalling number of deaths and serious injuries from traffic accidents. Informing police of traffic violations was one way in which all could assist.

Most accidents are caused by drivers who have no regard for the rights of others, stated Sergt. Lewis. The young drivers comprise 17% of all drivers in Ontario and they are involved in 28% of all the accidents. Efforts should be made to educate the younger drivers in safe driving habits.

Statistics were given by the speaker showing the appalling number of deaths and injuries as well as property damage from automobile accidents in Ontario. He listed the chief causes of accidents as: (1) Failure to give the other driver his share of the road; (2) Following the car ahead too closely; (3) Excessive speed and (4) Improper turning.

The speaker also urged motorists to watch for bicycles on highways — the greatest hazard on the road today. Give them a wide berth, and at all times be helpful, stated Sergt. Lewis.

The thanks of the assembly were given by Rotarian Earl Fox, who presented the speaker with a small memento in appreciation of his visit.

Dinner was served by the ladies of St. Paul's United Church at the noon hour.

Special Services Mark Anniversary At St. Andrew's, West Huntingdon

Rev. Horace Kaye, Peterborough, Guest Minister — Special Music By Choir

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Anniversary Services at West Huntingdon on Sunday, October 20th were marked by fine weather and large congregations.

Rev. Horace Kaye
Guest Minister

In the morning Rev. Horace Kaye, of Peterborough, took as his subject, "The Kingdom of God." By the Kingdom of God is meant the rule or reign of God in the hearts and lives of men. It means a social order in which Jesus would feel at home. It means the restoration to order of all the disorders that exists in the world. Some think of it as a goal which will never be achieved, but Jesus taught that in God's appointed time His Kingdom would be established.

God is working His purpose out. Nearer and nearer draws the time — the time that shall surely be when the earth shall be filled with the Glory of God as the waters cover the sea.

Evening Service

In the evening, assisted by Rev. W. H. V. Walker, who welcomed the guest minister and neighbouring congregations, Rev. Kaye took as his subject, "The Pre-eminence of Christ."

Jesus is the greatest character of the ages. He stands in a class by Himself, unapproached and unapproachable. God has exalted Him because of His Saviourhood, His character and His manhood. We do well to pay tribute to Jesus but it is better that we obey and serve Him, dedicating our lives to His service.

Music

Special music was rendered under the direction of the choir leader, Mrs. Wm. Donnan.

In the morning an anthem, "I Lift Mine Eyes To Thee," the solo part taken by Mrs. A. Hassall and the duet part by Mrs. A. Hassall and Mrs. Lindsay Sills and "I Love To Think of Jesus," were well rendered. In the evening the anthem, "How Great Thou Art," was rendered and a duet, "My Home Sweet Home," by Mrs. H. Hassall and Mrs. Lindsay Sills.

Baskets of 'mums' were placed in the church by Mrs. Sills in loving memory of John Chester Sills. Provincial Constable A. G. Stout investigated.

Couple Honoured By Community

Friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bush on Friday, October 18th to honour the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bush, and also to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bush who will be moving to Stirling.

Mr. Jack Chard acted as chairman for a short programme consisting of readings, community singing and short speeches.

Mr. Roy Tucker was called upon to read an address on behalf of the charivari boys and the presentation of a table lamp and foot stool was made.

An address was read by Mrs. Ross Holland on behalf of the community and the happy couple were presented with a platform rocker and a step-up end table.

Mrs. Geo. Heasman read an address on behalf of the neighbours and River Valley friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bush and they were presented with a Crosley radio.

Mrs. Ralph Utman spoke on behalf of the Institute and Mrs. Bush was the recipient of a lovely relish dish.

Both couples expressed their sincere appreciation to everyone for the kind words and gifts and invited one and all to visit them in their new homes.

"For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung, after which a bountiful lunch of sandwiches, cake and coffee was enjoyed by all.

By-Election In Hastings-Frontenac Riding Monday, November 4th

DR. SIDNEY SMITH

Ross Dowson, Self-Styled Trotskyite, of Toronto, Opposes Dr. Sidney E. Smith

Electors in the Federal constituency of Hastings-Frontenac will go to the polls on Monday, November 4th, in a by-election in which Dr. S. E. Smith, Minister of External Affairs in the Progressive Conservative Government, will be opposed by Ross Dowson, labor journalist, of Toronto. Self-styled Trotskyite Ross Dowson, 40, four times an unsuccessful mayoralty candidate in Toronto, was nominated at Madoc on Monday to contest a vacancy in the Hastings-Frontenac federal riding, thus preventing External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith from getting the post by acclamation.

The Toronto labor journalist and long-time executive in the Socialist Education League — formerly the Revolutionary Workers Party — told reporters he was disappointed neither Liberal nor CCF parties nominated opponents for Dr. Smith, Progressive Conservative candidate in the seat left vacant by the retirement of Geo. S. White, M.P. White later was elevated to the Senate.

Before Dowson's emergence as a candidate, it was generally assumed Dr. Smith would automatically become Hastings-Frontenac M.P.

Dowson, who argued he was no Communist, but strictly a Trotskyite, set up campaign headquarters Monday in Madoc. He named Frederick Hensler his campaign manager.

He said he expected heavy support November 4th from Bancroft district steelworkers. He said his main plank in the campaign would be opposition to the bipartisan policies of the Liberal and Progressive Conservative parties concerning our External Affairs Department."

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. O'Donnell will be happy to receive friends and neighbours on Sunday afternoon, October 27th, from 3.00 to 6.00 p.m. on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

St. Paul's Anniversary

St. Paul's Church Anniversary services were held on Sunday, October 20th with very reasonably good congregations present both morning and evening. The visiting minister, Rev. Gordon Porter, D.D., Secretary of Home Missions, brought inspiring messages and with all of us enjoyed a very warm fellowship.

Both the Royal Choir and the Senior Choir rendered splendid service. The Men's Quartette sang at the morning service and Mrs. Bruce Glendinning a solo, "O Troubled Heart Be Still" in the evening.

Entertain Teachers

St. Paul's has the happy privilege of entertaining the Teachers Institute, Hastings No. 3 this week, providing lunch for them and, as we trust, helping to make this important occasion as enjoyable as possible.

Scripturer's Group

The Scripturer's Group decided on Sunday to begin their week evening activities at once. The first meeting is to be held on Monday, October 28th at 8.00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith Observe 25th Anniversary

Friends neighbours and relatives recently tendered Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Church St., a delightful party on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The party was sponsored by Mrs. John Smith, who received the guests. She was assisted in serving the refreshments by Mrs. Fred Houchin, Mrs. M. Malloy and Mrs. Richard Hewton.

The rooms were decorated with silver baskets of asters and 'mums and pink and white streamers with matching wedding bells.

The dining table was covered with a cut-work cloth and centred with the pre-arranged anniversary cake suitably decorated for this auspicious occasion. The cake was flanked by tall pink candles. In this room the various gifts were displayed on the buffet, which consisted of electrical appliances, costume jewellers, conjecturing and an assortment of useful articles. There were also numerous congratulatory cards on display.

The living room table was covered with a lace cloth, tall pink lighted tapers set in silver and a low bowl of pink asters.

Numerous flash pictures were taken during the afternoon as a memento of the occasion.

Address Read

Mrs. Richard Hewton read an appreciative address on behalf of the neighbours and Mr. and Mrs. Smith were the recipients of a pair of hand socks in grey brocade, for which grateful thanks was expressed by the bride of 25 years.

Mrs. Smith and her daughter-in-law each wore lovely corsages, the gifts of a neighbour from her garden.

The guests included Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Secker of St. John's Anglican Church.

That evening a family dinner party was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married October 9th, 1932, and the bride said it was a lovely warm day and she didn't need a coat with her bridal gown and hat. They have one son, John, and one granddaughter.

Stirling friends extend greetings at this time.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

LET'S BREAK RECORDS

The Poet, Walt Whitman, claimed that out of every fruition of success, no matter what, comes forth something to make a new effort necessary.

My daughter, Sal, told me just last night that "Homework is like doing dishes — you get more to do the minute you finish one assignment."

That's life, isn't it?

Be glad about it. It means that you can always raise your sights. It means that there is no end, no "good enough," no vegetating.

Persons and nations are much alike. Nations that embrace a form of government that is hidebound, and static, and blue-printed from the top down gradually stagnate. Nations like our own, based on democracy, with a great deal of freedom for the individual, can continue to improve steadily. We can raise our sights. We can change. We don't have to sign a form every time we turn around, the way they do in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, or any other country where everything is run by the government.

To you, as an individual, Walt Whitman's observation is vital. It makes you take a look — a hard look at yourself. Have you fixed your sights a little higher this week than last?

Dr. Roger Bannister, the first man to run the four-minute mile, recently wrote in This Week magazine that "We should never be hypnotized by any mental limitation. We can always raise our sights."

He claimed that the record set by Walter George back in 1886 for the one-mile race went unbroken for so long because of a psychological rather than a physical barrier. Runners had it in their minds that a four-minute mile was impossible. But once Bannister proved it possible, the barrier was broken. Inside of three years, the 4-minute record was broken on 26 occasions by 16 runners!

So, if there are any lessons clear in this life, we can all improve by raising our sights. By refusing to be hidebound. By denying old limitations.

Likewise, this Canadian nation, if it will remain free, can make progress beyond our past dreams. Unbound by bureaucratic chains, free to grow, and eager for a richer and more dynamic life, this young country can be a pace-setter for the world.

Bannister's slogan might be adopted by all Canadians. "We should never be hypnotized by any mental limitation. We can always raise our sights."

Chas. P. Smith Died Suddenly

Stricken with a heart attack, Charles Patrick Smith, of Chatterton, died suddenly at the Outpost Hospital at Haliburton, Saturday afternoon. Mr. Smith was delivering apples to the north country when he was stricken.

He was born in Sidney Township 52 years ago, being the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and has resided in Sidney Township all of his life, where he was well known and highly regarded. He was a farmer in the community.

A member of St. James the Minor Church, Stirling, he is survived by his wife, the former Cecilia Ruddy, one daughter, Miss Doreen Smith, at home, four sons, Cameron Smith, of Belleville, Cecil, Paul and Arthur McMullen at home and three sisters, Mrs. Lena Forrestell, of Coniston; Mrs. John Tuepah, of Brockville, and Mrs. John, Ryan, R.R. 4 Stirling.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, October 22nd to St. James the Minor Church for Requiem Mass at 10 a.m. Interment in St. James Cemetery.

The Bible Today

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

"A black market in Bibles" you say: "Ridiculous, absurd, unthinkable," but in his recent address on "The Challenge of Opportunities in Africa" Mr. L. E. Greaves pointed out how and why it comes about.

In the Gold Coast region of Africa, the Bible is the people's daily bread; for their soul's health they must have it, in regular adequate supply. That the demand is there is clear from what happens whenever the supply falls short; at once a black market is created. Traders wait outside the bookshops, send in children one by one to buy the few available copies at 4/6d., collect them from them and sell them again at 16/6d. The demand is such that a black market of this kind is an absolutely safe investment, and totally destructive of the Bible Society's purpose to supply men and women with the Scriptures at a price they can afford.

Madoc JunctionEggleton W.M.S.
And W.A.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Maurice Clancy was hostess for the October meeting of Eggleton W.M.S. and W.A.

Mrs. Bruce Stapley presided over the programme prepared by Mrs. Wm. McMullen and opened the meeting with the hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God," with Mrs. Clancy as pianist. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. McMullen on the theme "Thanksgiving." Psalm CXI was read responsively, followed by the commentary on the lesson, assisted by Mrs. Clancy, Mrs. B. Stapley, Mrs. Warren Harlow and Mrs. Carl Bridges. The offering was dedicated with prayer by the pastor, Mr. George Dyson. The hymn, "Creations Lord, We Give Thee Thanks," was sung.

Nine members answered the roll call.

Mrs. Bridges presided for the business period. It was decided to hold the November meeting in the evening and Mrs. McMullen offered her home. Mrs. Clancy was appointed to prepare the programme. Plans were discussed for a pie social, with Mrs. Harlow and Mrs. Clancy to arrange the program. Mrs. Murney Kirkey and Mrs. W. McMullen were appointed lunch convenors.

An invitation was read to attend Group 2 W.A. Rally for Central Hastings, which will be held on October 23rd at Cordova United Church.

Mrs. Clancy gave an interesting report of the recent W.M.S. Rally held at Stone Church.

A piano solo by Mrs. Bruce Stapley was greatly appreciated. The chapter, "The Road is Rough" from the study book was given by Mrs. Clarence Fitchett. Mr. Paul Bridges read the prayer.

Several were presented with attendance diplomas of merit and Mrs. Carl Bridges on behalf of the Sunday School presented Mrs. Harlow with a large 20-year diploma. Mrs. Harlow has been superintendent of Eggleton Sunday School for nearly seventeen years.

Mr. Murray Martin gathered the offering, which was dedicated by singing "We Give Thee But Thine Own."

Master Lloyd Clancy and Mrs. Clarence Fitchett had birthdays during the week, so "Happy Birthday" was sung for them as they added their contribution to the birthday box.

The service closed with the hymn, "The Wise May Bring Their Learning" and prayer by Mrs. Bridges.

United Church W.M.S.

Mrs. Oscar Merrick was hostess to the W.M.S. on Wednesday with 29 ladies in attendance. Mrs. Milford Wrightman, W.M.S. President, opened the meeting with "God of All" and prayer.

Mrs. Eric Summers conducted the worship service on Thanksgiving entitled, "His Hour." She was assisted by Mrs. Frank Jeffs and Mrs. Garth Joslin.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen gave her report and twelve members answered the roll call. The Treasurer has remitted to the Presbyteral Treasurer $121.56. The allocation is $440.00 for Auxiliary and two Bands (Mission and Baby Band).

Karen Summers gathered the offering which Mrs. Stanley Williams dedicated. Subscriptions are due now for the Missionary Monthly and World Friends. The Bookshelf was authorized to be purchased. Thanks was expressed for hospitality.

Mrs. Gordon Linn, Supply Secretary, read a request for baby blankets, etc. for the Archer Memorial Hospital at Lamont, Alta. for 1958. The President read special articles from the Missionary Monthly. The ladies are asked to remember their mite boxes and to bring them to the December meeting; also a list of books read.

The W.A. President announced the Centre Hastings Convention and expressed thanks for assistance with the three weddings.

Mrs. Eric Summers, delegate to the rally at Stone Church, gave a comprehensive report. She said it was stressed there that each W.M.S. member plan to lay away twenty-five cents weekly thus at the end of the year she would have contributed $13.00 systematically and that is the minimum giving. If you can give more to spread the gospel, it will be appreciated. Seventy-five cents of every dollar is used for Home Missions. The W.M.S. organization is pledged to assume one-half of the missionary work of the United Church.

Mrs. Frank Jeffs read an article on Race Prejudice and Mrs. Will Potts recorded the Community Friendship calls.

Mrs. J. Holmes outlined "The Japan of Yesterday." In 1853 Commodore Perry arrived in Japan and in 1859 the first Protestant Missionaries began work in that land.

The service closed with "A charge to keep I have" and prayer by Mrs. Don Johnson, after which the hostess served light refreshments.

Mission Band

Mount Pleasant Sunbeam Mission Band convened at the Church Hall on Thanksgiving Sunday with 28 in attendance. The President, Kenneth Smith was in charge. All sang, "Little Sunbeams" and repeated the Mission Band Purpose in unison.

Carol Sharpe gave her report. Judy Cooney sang, "Father We Thank Thee" and Calvin Sharp read a selection.

Mrs. Stanley Williams welcomed the new members who graduated in July. She outlined a Korean story entitled, "The Man of the Family." This little Korean boy lost his father during World War II and felt very bitter.

Barbara Williams contributed a piano solo. The worship was based on the theme, "Christians Help the Sick." The Scripture lessons were read by Kenneth Smith, Pauline Johnson and the Mission Band leader. All sang a hymn and Shirley Potts offered prayer.

The offering was gathered by Freddy McAdam and Jimmy Summers and dedicated by Gail Scott. A selection was read by Mary Ellen David and Carol Sharp contributed a piano solo. The meeting closed with the singing of "When He Cometh" and the benediction.

Bath To Vote On Liquor

Residents of Bath will go to the polls on December 4th to vote on whether beer and liquor will be sold by the glass in the municipality.

The village has been "dry" since the days of the Ontario Temperance Act. The vote will be the second in three years.

Superintendent of Division

Leonard Begg, who has been employed in the Campbellford area by the Department of Transport for the past decade, and who served as canalman, lockmaster and later as superintendent II of the Campbellford division of the Trent Canal, has been promoted to the position of superintendent of the Peterborough division.

Mr. Begg, a veteran, has been active in the work of the Canadian Legion in Campbellford and served as president of Branch 103 for the past year.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

THIRD ANNUAL SALE QUINTE DIST. CATTLE BREEDING ASSOCIATION

The Third Annual Sale of registered Holstein cattle consigned by members of the Quinte District Cattle Breeding Association was an outstanding success at the Grafton Arena on Monday afternoon, October 15th.

Unit sales are a relatively new feature in Ontario and are fast proving a very popular place for farmers to purchase registered Holstein cattle for their herds.

All of the cattle that are consigned to the Quinte District Unit Sales are animals that are sired by bulls that have been used through artificial insemination in the Quinte District.

At the sale on Monday, forty-three head of cattle brought the highest sale average to date of $363. Twenty-five of these forty-three animals were heifers which makes the average even more impressive.

Sixteen of the animals consigned were sold for export to Venezuela, Mexico and the U.S.A.

Some of the consignments are worth mentioning separately in that they were consignments which topped the prices for the sale.

The highest priced individual in the sale was a consignment made by Earl Harnden, of Napanee. His outstanding four-year-old who has been First Prize dry cow at the Lennox and Addington Black and White Day, sold for $700.00 to J. M. McIntosh, Aurora.

Lindsay Anderson, of Campbellford, who was formerly the herd superintendent of Massey Harris Farms, did the bidding for Mr. McIntosh on this animal.

A Very Good daughter of Wood-dale Rag Apple Chieftain, consigned by Donald Massey, of Morganston, was also purchased by Mr. J. M. McIntosh for $510.00.

The second highest priced animal in the sale was a daughter of Glenafton Rag Apple Leader, consigned by Mr. Fred Motley, of R.R. 1 Belleville, selling for $600.00. Her purchaser is a leading breeder in New York State.

Other animals pricing well up in the sale was a daughter of Rosafe tiptop that had made almost 14,000 pounds as a two-year-old consigned by Mr. William Moore, of Port Hope.

In several instances, breeders in our district purchased animals which indicated their recognition of the value of these cattle. Mr. Fred Hubbs, of Bloomfield, purchased five head of heifers all outstanding individuals. Ross Parks, of Bloomfield, purchased an especially promising daughter of Hainescrest Sovereign Tycoon for $390.00, consigned by Mr. Arch Kerr, of Picton.

Judging from the satisfaction indicated by the consignors and purchasers at this third sale, we can expect to see another sale held during the fall of 1958.

Those persons consigning animals to the Third Quinte Sale were: Baker, Clarence F., Napanee; Bell, John W., Moscow, Ont.; Broad, James L., of Belleville; Clarke, Donald W., Campbellford; Dodds, Samuel P. & Rose, Picton; Down, Wesley C., Hilton; Goodfellow, J. M., Codrington; Harden, Earl, Napanee; Herriot, Donald, Cobourg; Hoskins, Bertram, Cobourg; Hubb, Fred H., Bloomfield; Hunt, B. New Secretary Cheese Producers

It has been announced by the Directors of the Ontario Cheese Producers' Marketing Board that Arnold Johnston, of Iroquois, Ontario, has been appointed Secretary-Treasurer of the Board. The announcement was made by Mr. H. C. Arnold, Chairman of the Marketing Board. Mr. Johnston succeeds Mr. C. N. Heath, who has been with the organization for the past ten years.

Mr. Johnston is from Eastern Ont., a son of Mr. Thomas Johnston, cheese merchant and cheese storage operator for the last half century. The new Secretary received his education in the public and high school of Iroquois and later attended Ottawa Normal School. He spent several years teaching in his home district, and then took the dairy course at Kempton Agricultural College. After having spent a year as salesman with Kraft Foods Limited, he joined his father's firm, Thos. Johnston & Sons, Iroquois. While in his own business he received valuable experience in the manufacturing, exporting and domestic distribution of Ontario cheese.

In 1954 Mr. Johnston joined the Cheese Producers as assistant to Mr. Robert F. Hart, Sales Manager. For some time now he has been manager of the Belleville and Winchester stores. He will continue these duties with his new appointment.

Mr. Johnston is married, with two children, a son and a daughter. He is interested in community activities and is a member of several organizations.

THE FOOD BASKET

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF FRESH "LAMB IN A BASKET"

For the small family particularly, "Lamb in a Basket" is a convenient way of buying several cuts of lamb at one time. Actually, all are shoulder cuts but in "Lamb in a Basket" blade roast or chops, round-bone chops and stewing meat are packaged and sold together at the one price.

So that you will be able to take better advantage of "Lamb in a Basket" by cooking the cuts in various ways, the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture passes along the following suggestions:

(1) To Cook Blade Roast:

Roast in usual way (325 deg. F. oven) and serve with gravy.

Roast, then decorate with Mint Glaze. To do this, blend together $\frac{1}{4}$ cup mint jelly, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon dry mustard and 1 tablespoon vinegar. Spread over meat last half hour of roasting, basting several times.

Remove bone, fill cavity with bread stuffing seasoned with either mint or thyme, tie or skewer together and roast in usual way.

(2) To Cook Chops:

Panfry, broil or bake.

Top with stuffing and bake.

Cook in barbecue sauce.

Season with thyme and braise in small amount of liquid (e.g. tomato juice).

Serve with some of the following in mixed grill: liver, sausage, kidney, bologna, ham or bacon.

(3) To Cook Stewing Meat:

Make ordinary stew but season with thyme. Serve with dumplings, or a border of mashed potatoes.

Mince and use in lamb loaf, patties or hash. Season with onion and a little curry powder, if desired.

Cook in barbecue sauce.

Make curried lamb.

Make meat pie with pastry or biscuit topping.

MARTHA SAYS...

Cow's milk is the most nourishing food for our bodies; and the milk of human kindness is the most nourishing for our spirits. And no marketing board nor any union will ever be able to control the distribution of that milk.

WHO SPENDS?

WHEN new federal buildings, or new highways with elaborate cloverleafs, or new city halls are constructed, they must be built with the taxpayers' money.

Very often such expenditures are enthusiastically approved, because each of us seems to think it is some other person's tax money which is being spent so lavishly.

Canadians can help themselves, and the men and women they have elected to office, only if they remember that governments have no funds except the taxes they take from each of us.

Rotary Foundation

Fellowship

Available For One Year Study Abroad

A year of study abroad as a Rotary Foundation Fellowship is the exciting possibility for some student from Stirling, Harold C. Bird, President of the Rotary Club of Stirling announced today. Applications are now being accepted by the Rotary Club for the Fellowship, which includes all transportation, education and living expenses for the 1958-59 academic year.

Qualifications For The Fellowship

Applications for the Rotary Fellowship may be made only through the Rotary Club in the town where the student has his permanent residence. In Stirling, applications should be made to Geo. Lyons, Secretary of the local club.

Candidates must be between 20 and 29 years of age. They must have a college or university degree (or they must now be in their senior year), a record of high scholastic standing, and a thorough knowledge of the language of the country in which they propose to study.

They must have the ability to make friends easily, be vitally interested in world affairs, and possess an instinct for leadership.

Rotary Fellowships are granted without regard to race, creed or citizenship.

Competition Within Rotary District

The applicant selected by the Rotary Club of Stirling will compete for the Rotary Fellowship with applicants selected by the other 27 Rotary Clubs in this District, which is comprised of 23 Clubs in Ontario from Barrie and Peterborough north and 5 Clubs in Northwestern Quebec. Deadline for the receipt of applications for the 1958-59 academic year by the local Rotary Club is November 15th.

$2,250,00 In Grants

Since the programme was inaugurated in 1947 in memory of the founder of Rotary, Paul P. Harris, Rotary Foundation Fellowships have been awarded to 953 young men and women living in 61 countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, the Americas, and the Islands of the Pacific, for study in 42 countries. The one-year grants average $2,500 each and the total grants since 1947 have been in excess of $2,250,000.

Ambassadors of Good Will

Rotary Fellowships have proved themselves to be unusually effective ambassadors of international good will, not only in the lands in which they do their graduate work, but also in their own countries after their year of study.

Rotary Foundation Fellowships are unique in that, with some 9,600 Rotary Clubs in 105 countries throughout the world, the student is in direct contact with Rotarians and their families during his year away from home, no matter where he is studying. He attends their Rotary meetings, visits in their homes and places of business, and travels as much as possible during his school holidays. In this way, he sees at first hand how the people in his host country live, and, through these close associations, he lays the essential foundations for increased international understanding, which is one of Rotary's principal objectives.

Tomorrow's Leaders

Although the programme is only in its eleventh year, many Rotary Fellowships already have shown promise that they may well be among tomorrow's leaders: they are teaching in universities and secondary schools — they have entered the foreign and domestic services of their governments — they have been ordained as ministers of churches of various faiths — they are doing active research work — and they are active in positions of leadership in diverse business and professional fields.

Trenton Gets Transport Command

The RCAF will move its Transport Command headquarters from Lachine, Que., to Trenton, Ont., and Training

Command headquarters from Trenton to Winnipeg next year, it was learned last week.

Several training stations on the Prairies will be closed. They have been used in the main to train NATO flyers but this programme will end once 360 West German pilots have been taught to fly.

Though Transport Command headquarters are at Lachine, not all RCAF transport squadrons are based there. The training programme now is largely in the West.

One reason for the transport command shift is to make more room at Dorval airport near Montreal for commercial carriers.

The RCAF declined to give details of the shifts or their exact dates.

103rd Milestone Passed By St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Rev. R. B. Milroy, M.A., of Perth, Guest Minister — Special Music by the Choir

Favoured with lovely fall weather, the 103rd Anniversary observed by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stirling, on Sunday, was crowned with success. Rev. R. B. Milroy, M.A., of Perth, was the guest minister and large congregations, including many former members of St. Andrew's, were present both morning and evening to hear his outstanding messages.

Morning Service

The Church needs a praying people a praying discipleship, for if they are thus they will be a working congregation Rev. Milroy stated. A feeling of our own inadequacy, having our own ego deflated makes us bring ourselves to God. Then comes the humble heart. To come to God with confession and to know that confession is accepted is a great feeling. When you feel inadequate you are led to say from the bottom of your heart "teach me to pray."

Adored With Flowers

The church was decorated for the occasion with baskets of mums from Mr. and Mrs. Percy Craighead.

Evening Service

At the evening service Rev. Milroy spoke on the subject "Let Us Do Great Deeds." Nehemiah was repairing the walls of Jerusalem and laying down a new policy for his country. When asked by his scheming neighbours to come down from the summit he replied, "I am doing a great work so I cannot come down."

"Be worthy of whatever vocation you are in and don't belittle the work for which you have been chosen. Whatever you are doing you have been commissioned by the Master to do your best," stated Rev. Milroy.

Anniversary Music

The anniversary music at the morning service consisted of an anthem, "Sweet Peace the Gift of God's Love," by P. Bilhorn, by the choir, and a duet, "Rock of Ages," T. E. Solly, by Mrs. W. Warren and Mr. Wm. Reynolds.

In the evening the choir rendered "Hark, Hark My Soul," by Shelley, with Mrs. Roy Eggleton taking the solo parts, and Mrs. Chas. Fargey and Mrs. Eggleton the duet parts, and Mrs. S. Wallace, of Toronto, rendered the solo "Come Ye Blessed," by J. P. Scott.

Mrs. Harry Morrow, organist and choir leader, presided at the console at both services.

F. A. Rands Speaker At Weekly Meeting Stirling Rotary Club

"Retailing and the Retail Merchants Association of Canada" was the subject of an address by F. Arnold Rands, General Manager of the National Foods Division of the Retail Merchants Association of Canada, to the Stirling Rotary Club at its weekly meeting on Tuesday night.

Introduced by President Harold C. Bird, Mr. Rands spoke of problems facing the independent merchant and the manner in which they might be combated.

Referring to the store hour problem, he stated the association was striving for a maximum closing hour of 7 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday, 9 p.m. Friday and all-day closing Monday.

He advised members of the Rotary Club to check the business places in Stirling and make it their business to let them know where they are falling down. "Just don't sour and go out of town to buy. It's partly your fault if the local retail industry falls down," stated Mr. Rands.

The need for modernization and enlargement of small town stores to compete with stores in larger centres was emphasized by the speaker. Merchants in the smaller towns must make a determined effort to make their stores attractive enough so that residents will find less need to go to the larger centres if they are to survive.

Minor Hockey Meeting Wednesday

A meeting of the Stirling Minor Hockey Association will be held in the Council Chambers on Wednesday next, November 6th, at 7.30 p.m. All those interested in hockey are urged to be present.

I.O.D.E. Holds Monthly Meeting

Due to the fact that the date for the regular meeting was reserved for the goblins and ghosts, the Honorable J. R. Cooke Chapter I.O.D.E. held their meeting one week early on October 24th at the home of Mrs. Stuart McArton. Two jack-o-lanterns grinned at one another from either end of the room to lend a "Hallowe'en" air to the meeting.

The meeting was opened with the Prayer of the Order and Our Country's flag was brought forward. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and the Treasurer's report given.

Mrs. Bruce Glendinning kindly offered her home for a quilting, to be held Tuesday afternoon and evening, November 12th. It was decided to begin the second series of Teen Dances with a dance on Friday, November 13th. The members voted in favour of a Fashion Show and a committee was selected. It will be held in the early part of 1958.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bob Cooke instead of Mrs. Mick Armstrong, but the original committee will be in charge.

Don't forget the Remembrance Day service at the Cenotaph, Monday, November 11th.

The business portion of the meeting ended with the singing of God Save the Queen and the remainder of the evening was turned over to the committee in charge. Some contests were played after which a very delicious lunch was served by the committee.

Mrs. Bob Philip thanked Mrs. McArton for her home and the committee for the enjoyable evening.

Rev. H. C. Secker Delivers Farewell

The farewell service at St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling, was attended by a large congregation on Sunday. The Rover Scouts, with Mr. Joe Irish, were present. The Junior Auxiliary proceeded into church carrying their new banner. The Rector, Rev. H. C. Secker, dedicated the sanctuary lamp to the honour of God and in loving memory of Sarah Wickett. The banner was described as a symbol of unity and co-operation as many hands went into the making of it. It was dedicated to the honour of God and to remind the members that they were servants of Christ the King. Bonnie Tanner, Lynda Haggerty, Kathy Parsons and Suzanne Murray received their membership cards.

The choir sang as an anthem, "Come Unto Me," with Graham Mouck taking the men's solo part.

The Rector spoke on the texts Deut. 33: 25 and 2 Peter 3: 18. The theme was the spiritual needs of man being met by the growth in Grace and the knowledge of Christ. God answers man's need by giving him a Saviour to worship in fellowship and brotherhood one with the other.

Mr. Secker spoke of his deep appreciation for all that had been done to make him and his family so happy while in the Parish.

At the close of the service Mrs. Secker was presented with a life membership in the Women's Auxiliary by Mrs. M. Tanner, the President. The signal honour and mark of appreciation for her work with the W.A. was originally the kind thought of the Dorcas Secretary, Mrs. G. Noble. The whole branch agreed that this award merited the interest and work that Mrs. Secker had put into the life of the W.A.

Flowers on the altar were in memory of Mrs. W. Bailey, given by Peggy, Pauline and Jack.

Bethel United Church Observes Anniversary

On Sunday, October 20th the Bethel (Rawdon) congregation of the United Church observed the 83rd anniversary of the founding of the church, with a good attendance at both services. The church was adorned for the occasion with baskets of variegated 'mums' and the two pedestal standards were filled with pines and autumn blooms.

Rev. F. E. Madden, B.A., Marmora, was the guest minister both morning and evening and preached two inspiring sermons.

His morning message was based on "Living by Routine," with Luke 4: 16 as his text. And as his custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day.

The routine of the Christian life needs three things: (1) It needs safeguarding. We need to keep the path to our prayer room well worn. God's love constrains us to keep the prayer routine intact.

(2) It needs to be made the channel of the spirit. Worship can become a dull exercise unless the fire be kept burning on the altar.

(3) We must be responsive to the transforming power and new leadings of the spirit. We must not try to limit the workings of the spirit. Great revivals will come only as we are willing to follow where His spirit leads.

Evening Service

At the evening service Rev. Madden spoke on the subject, "Towards Iron Unity," with John 17: 20-21 as his text, "That they all may be one, that the world may believe."

Jesus' prayers are a mirror of the mind of Jesus. The way to the union of Christendom lies through personal union with the Lord. It is God's love received and matured in the heart.

As the love of Christ penetrates our hearts, we shall come to value what is good in other Denominations. The love of Christ tells us we must go on to grow in the Christian life, in grace and knowledge.

Special Music

Special music, arranged by Mrs. Harold Elliott, A.T.C.M., church organist, was rendered by a full choir at both services.

In the morning the choir rendered the anthem, "Sing Praises to the Lord," by F. G. Walter. The guest soloist, Mr. Jack Grant, of Marmora, sang "I Walked Into The Garden," by M. Weaver and Miss M. Meiklejohn, of Marmora and Mr. Grant rendered the duet, "The Heart of God," by C. B. McAfee.

At the evening service the choir sang the anthem, "The Heart of the Master," by E. H. Owen, with Mrs. D. Heath and Mrs. C. Potts taking a duet part. Mr. J. Grant sang two numbers, "At Morning, Noon and Night," by Jacobs-Bond and "Only A Touch of Thy Hand, O Lord," by J. Ackley. The evening service closed with the rendition of "Softly and Tenderly Jesus Is Calling."

Goup 2 Centre Hastings Belleville Presbytery W.A. Rally At Cordova

Despite the heavy rain on October 24th sixty-three ladies met in Cordova Mines United Church for the Rally of Group 2, Centre Hastings, Belleville Presbytery Woman's Association. Mrs. Kenneth Weaver presided.

Following the opening exercises Mrs. T. Bateman, Mrs. F. E. Madden and Mrs. J. Murphy conducted the devotional service which was based on the theme, "The Call of the Master," and was very reverently and meaningfully presented. The address of welcome was given by Cordova W.A.

Mrs. J. Pollock, of Wellman's, sang very effectively the solo, "He Smiled On Me."

Minutes of the 1956 Rally were read and approved and Mrs. C. Burkitt presented the Treasurer's report. A discussion followed re date of future meetings. It was unanimously decided that the fourth Wednesday of October be set as the permanent date of the Rallies. Eggleton Church will be the 1958 meeting place. The report of the nominating committee was received and accepted. The offering was collected by members of Salem W.A. and dedicated by Mrs. John Holmes, Mount Pleasant.

The reports of 14 Associations were very interesting and informative and showed that during the past year the members of these groups have been tireless workers. Over $9,000.00 was raised by various methods and used for the upkeep, improvement and furnishing of Parsonage and Churches, for children's work in Sunday Schools, at camps and for welfare work. One organization reported sending a girl to the School for Leaders at Whitby. All organizations told of the work being done among the sick and shut-ins. The three giving definite numbers, called on 658 members during the year.

Guest Speaker

The guest speaker, Mrs. Frank Davidson, of Belleville, was introduced by Mrs. Walter Elliott, and she chose a two part subject, (1) "The Measure of a Woman" and (2) "The Aims and Objects of Our W.A."

Speaking on the first part, Mrs. Davidson said woman is the keeper of the heart and home. Moral soundness of the world depends on her. The quality of the whole social system is determined by what she is. She can sink men to the nethermost or raise him to the stars. She is spiritually what she is physically — the guardian of the race, she shapes souls even as she feeds the bodies of future generations.

Each soul needs to be restored constantly and to experience humility. The true way to be humble is not to stoop till you are smaller than yourself but stand at your real height against some higher nature. That shall show you what the smallness of your greatness is.

Referring to the second part of the topic, the speaker said, If we are to fulfill the aim and object of the W.A. we must study and make careful preparation for both devotional and inspirational programmes. We must accept and promote Christian Stewardship and Christian Citizenship. The goal to work for is the unification of all Women's Organizations in the Church.

The report of the courtesy committee was brought in and a very successful Rally brought to a close by the benediction.

W.A. members were reminded of the appeal for funds to renovate the John Knox chapel in Switzerland and of the forthcoming Mission in Bridge St. United Church, Belleville, November 17th to 24th.

A bountiful and appetizing lunch was served by the ladies of Cordova Church.

ford, on Saturday, October 19th, at two o'clock.

The church was decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums and the traditional wedding music was played by Miss Barbara Woodbeck. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length powder blue bengaline dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Clarence Maracle, of Syracuse, N.Y., who wore a navy blue taffeta dress and corsage of pink roses.

Mr. George Field, of Fenelon Falls, was groomsman for his brother and Messrs. Doug Doohier and Glen Wilson, of Campbellford, were the ushers.

At the reception held in the "Sterling" Hotel, the bride's mother received her guests in a navy blue dress with a corsage of yellow roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother in a navy blue dress and beige coat with navy accessories.

Out-of-town guests were present from Toronto, Buffalo, Trenton, Marmora, Campbellford and Syracuse, N.Y.

Previous to her marriage the bride was entertained to a miscellaneous shower in her honour given at the home of Mrs. Max Maguire, by the community, with Mrs. Bert Cook, Mrs. Bill Wilkins and Mrs. Fred Bateman as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Bert Cook welcomed the guests and wished Evelyn all good wishes for her coming marriage, after which Evelyn opened her many beautiful gifts with the help of Heather and Carol Anne Maguire, and then expressed her thanks. This was followed by contests and lunch was served by the hostess and co-hostesses.

The High School class mates of the bride-to-be held a kitchen shower in her honour at Mrs. Burton Woodbeck's cottage, Oak Lake, with Barbara Woodbeck and Sally Fox as co-hostesses.

On Wednesday evening, October 16th at the home of Mrs. Albert Fraser, Misses Pat Fraser and Pat Domino were co-hostesses at a presentation of aluminum cookware to the bride-elect.

A Letter To The Editor

The following letter was received from the Secretary of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation and clearly explains their attitude in regard to the current by-election:

To CCF Members in Hastings-Frontenac:

It has been announced in the press that Ross Dowson, of Toronto, is a candidate in the Hastings-Frontenac by-election scheduled for November 4th.

I think that CCF members and supporters in this riding are entitled to know that Dowson is a Trotskyist (which is an extreme form of Communist). Though he usually poses as a friend of the CCF, he actually has a long record of trying to disrupt CCF work in Toronto and elsewhere.

All over the world, democratic socialist movements like the CCF have steadfastly opposed the totalitarian philosophy of communism (and Trotskyism is an extreme form of communism). In fact, democratic socialism is one of the greatest obstacles in the world to the advance of communism. As a result, the communists (including Trotskyists) have persistently tried to destroy it.

Since they are completely unscrupulous their normal tactic is to try to worm their way into democratic socialist organizations by pretending they are friends and then to try to disrupt these organizations by sowing confusion and dissension from within.

Dowson and his cohorts have often tried this tactic on the CCF. They have not, of course, come even close to destroying the CCF as a whole. Nevertheless, there have been two or three occasions in the past where they have succeeded in completely wrecking individual CCF clubs. The members of such clubs were not familiar with Trotskyist tactics, so they accepted Dowson's friends at face value and let them into their clubs. They then found to their dismay that the continuous dissension and disruption fomented by the Trotskyists made it impossible to carry on effective work. Such clubs had to be rebuilt from the ground up after the Trotskyists were thrown out.

In the present by-election campaign, Dowson will undoubtedly try to persuade CCFers that he merits their support. He will, of course, play down his real philosophy and will try to tell you that his objectives are just about the same as the CCF's.

He will probably give you a newspaper (which he publishes with tawa and Queen's Park. The particular issue he gives you may be fairly innocuous and may in fact appear as if it does support the CCF, but anyone who has read this paper over a period of time will know that it is usually attacking the CCF in an underhanded way. Its attacks often take the particularly vicious form of trying to cast doubt on honesty and integrity of CCF leaders such as M. J. Coldwell and Premier T. C. Douglass.

If Dowson approaches you directly or indirectly for support, I would suggest that you should consider his blandishments in the light of the record I have just outlined. I would also appreciate it if you would convey this information to our CCF supporters who are not members and who will therefore not receive this letter.

Yours sincerely,
Ken Bryden,
Provincial Secretary

learn to read each year. This means that if the total circulation of all the Bible Societies were distributed exclusively to new literates, there would scarcely be enough to give each new literate even a single book.

If we include only New Testaments and Bibles it would mean that we could supply in a single year only about one-third of those who would become literate, and this would leave absolutely nothing for those who might have a New Testament and want a Bible, or those whose Scriptures were lost or worn out by use. The truth is the Christian people of the world are by no means keeping up with present developments in literacy.

1958 Chevrolet Models Go On Display At Stirling Motor Sales

Details of the dramatic new styling and outstanding engineering advances of the 1958 Chevrolet are announced by General Motors of Canada Limited.

Labeled "the car of the year" by newspaper and technical writers who have attended private showings, the new model will be unveiled today, (Thursday, October 31st) in Chevrolet dealerships across the country.

Also on public display for the first time will be the rakish 1958 Corvette and the latest in the Chevrolet truck line.

The 1958 Chevrolet is new from bumper-to-bumper and from frame to roof line. The all-new features include:

A completely re-styled car which is longer, lower and wider and emphasizes flowing sculptured lines from the dual headlamps to softly flared rear fenders.

An X-shaped frame which allows a lower silhouette but retains ample head room and increases leg room and luggage space.

Two suspension systems for a more luxurious ride along with remarkable handling, stability and durability. Sturdy coil springs, front and rear, are standard. A new "Level Air" system which automatically adjusts to all load weights is optional.

348-cubic inch engine which is new from fan to flywheel. Designed primarily around a new combustion chamber, the optional Turbo-Thrust V-8 offers greater torque for improved mid-range performance.

Chassis-body design integration to supply exceptional structural strength and greater rigidity.

Forward-mounted steering linkage which provides more responsive action and reduces road vibration to the steering wheel.

Some idea of the fresh newness of the Chevrolet line is suggested by the new body groupings and identification.

In recognition of the growing popularity of station wagons, an exclusive five-unit series of this body type has been established.

The Bel Air series is continued, but adds among its six models a sumptuous sport coupe and convertible under the Impala nameplate, introduced on a "dream car" at the General Motors Motorama in 1956.

In the middle range of the low-priced car bracket is a Biscayne series, with two sedans. The bottom

Chevrolet is quick to explain that the longer, lower lines of the 1958's were not inspired alone by a desire for beauty. The form complements advances in chassis engineering that promise to heighten immeasurably driving and riding enjoyment.

Important in the broad gains along the mechanical front is the adoption of coil springs at the rear wheels as a standard fixture. Long a front-end feature on Chevrolet, the coil cushion shocks far better than previous suspension systems.

As optional equipment, the company additionally pioneers in its field a new "Level Air" suspension, employing for the first time rubber bellows at all four wheels. Thorough an inter-connected air supply and exhaust system with leveling valves, this suspension assures precisely the same resistance to shock regardless of car load.

The new Turbo-Thrust engine is still another highspot that illustrates the magnitude of the engineering job behind the 1958 Chevrolets. Predominant is a completely new combustion chamber design which assures uniform combustion. The new engine is one of five V8's and a six-cylinder carried in the new line. Ramjet fuel injection which Chevrolet introduced last year, is again offered as an option on the 233-cubic inch V8. Automatic Turboglide, Powerglide, an improved three-speed Synchro-Mesh and the overdrive are again available. Told, Chevrolet gives the buyer his pick of 18 power trains.

Chevrolet Corvette

For its fifth year the 1958 Corvette is revitalized in looks and mechanics. With a range of options never previously available in any other vehicle of its type, it offers four engines and three transmissions. Fuel injection, single or dual four-barrel carburetors, heavy duty clutches, a special cam, an axle that assures positive power with only one rear wheel in traction, a hydraulic folding top, electric window lifts and a heavy-duty suspension system are only a few of the choices open to the buyer.

The staunch, light-weight plastic body — exclusive among all production vehicles — stays as one of the outstanding features of the new Corvette, but for 1958 the form has been modified to give more grace and ruggedness than ever.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

My son built himself a mosquito-sized hydroplane and powered it with a hepped-up outboard motor, and this summer scared the living daylight out of his mother and me, watching him take off across the lake like an atomic projectile. Then, out of a clear sky, with a crowd of teenagers around, he said, "Dad, why don't you try my boat?"

I don't know what possessed me. To begin with, there wasn't enough room in the thing for me to sit comfortably. A slim youth has to adjust himself carefully in order to manoeuvre; and I am, unfortunately, no longer a youth nor too slim.

"Sure, son," I said. "I've been hoping to get a chance at it."

The look of surprise on the faces of those arrogant young teenagers was a tonic; but I noticed that behind my ribs the old heart was starting to rev up like an outboard itself. But the chips were down.

A small hydroplane with a big motor doesn't plane easily. You must put the motor at full speed, stand up and lean forward at the ribbing and hope it doesn't flip over.

I aimed the boat out from the dock, started it, twisted it to top speed, leaned forward and it began to plane. I squatted, my knees aching and shaking. But I felt a sense of exhilaration. I showed these young whippersnappers. Then the opposite shore loomed up, and somehow I managed a quick turn, holding my breath.

I went once around our small lake, and I was beginning to feel more relaxed, and I even enjoyed the sense of speed. Then I remembered Bill's instructions. "Dad, be careful about stopping. You've got to do everything you did when starting, only in reverse. Slow the motor, stand up quickly, and lean forward. Otherwise, she'll swamp herself and you'll dunk the motor."

I didn't give a hoot about the motor by this time. I didn't want to dunk myself. I made a tentative effort to see if I could stand. I was by no means sure I could untangle myself from the boat, with a big gasoline tank and myself sandwiched in there so tight.

So I headed like a bullet for our pier. The teenage gang, and my wife, were clumped together on the pier. As I got closer — and I seemed to get there awful fast — I could see grins a mile wide, except for Bill and my wife. I guess he was worried about me dunking the motor in an attempt to stop; and I think my wife was wondering if the old boy had finally flipped his lid.

It is wonderful what you can do if you must, and luck favours you. About ten feet from the pier I said a quick prayer, squeezed the motor to slow, and somehow stood up and leaned (I really fell) forward on the ribbing. She planed in smoothly.

"Pretty good, eh?" Bill said.

"Oh . . . I guess I handled her all right," I said modestly.

"I mean the boat," he said. There was no general applause. Not from the crowd. There was even a scolding from the wife. But I felt good. Mighty good. There's life in the old boy yet!

THE FOOD BASKET

PORK, LAMB BOTH GOOD WITH BAKED BEANS

Fresh pork and lamb are plentiful in November, so what better time to try some new ways of serving them? Both are good with canned baked beans especially when baked together, as in these recipes recently tested in Canada's Kitchen:

Easted Beans

And Lamb Chops

6 lamb chops, $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick
2 20-ounce cans baked beans
Salt and pepper

Wipe chops with a damp cloth. Brown chops over high heat, 1 minute each side. Turn chops and continue cooking slowly over moderate heat allowing 5 minutes for each side. Pour half the beans into a baking dish. Arrange chops over beans, then add remaining beans. Cover and bake in moderately hot oven (375 deg. F.) until thoroughly heated, about 30 minutes. Six servings.

Suggested Accompaniment — Cole slaw, seasoned with a little dry mint.

Suggested Dessert — Apple Crisp, baked along with the main dish.

Braised Pork

And Baked Beans

3 to 4 pound pork roast
(loin or shoulder)
Salt and pepper
1 chopped garlic clove
1 cup chopped onion (1 medium)
1 cup hot water
2 20-ounce cans baked beans

Brown meat well on all sides in heavy small roasting pan. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Add garlic, onion and hot water. Cover and cook slowly on top of stove until tender, about 2 hours. Add beans and bake, uncovered, in moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.) until beans are thoroughly heated, about 30 minutes. Eight to ten servings.

Suggested Accompaniment — Waldorf Salad or Jellied Apple Salad.

Suggested Dessert — Individual Baked Custards or Lemon Souffles.

of-the-ordinary cases, the problem of providing care and treatment facilities for the growing child population in Toronto and in the Province is one that will require consideration by various hospital authorities. These bodies have been informed of the situation that will arise in due course so that the necessary steps to create future hospital facilities for children can be carefully considered and adequately dealt with during the next few years.

The Board of Trustees is hopeful that the 100-bed addition to the Hospital can be financed without a public appeal.

On Thursday evening, October 17th, approximately 152 Holstein Breeders and their friends gathered at Plainfield for the Annual Hastings County Holstein Banquet.

A highlight of the evening was an address by Mr. Lindsay Anderson, Holstein breeder from Campbellford. The theme of Mr. Anderson's address was the fact that not only is money to be considered in farming, but community life, the excellent surroundings for raising a family, working with nature and the many things that go with rural life. Mr. Anderson pointed out that the farmer who used R.O.P. and selective grading and thereby bred only the best was making money whereas the man that just kept cattle and did not make a study of his job was, in many cases, just existing.

Musical numbers were provided by Donna Robinson and Judy Dafoe and the Fishers from Foxboro.

Speakers on the programme included Mr. Nelson, Holstein Fieldman; Mr. Harold McCull, Holstein Director; Mr. Harry Coulter, 2nd Vice-President; and Mr. Hudson Ketcheson, 1st Vice-President.

W. Frank Jeffs and son, Stirling, were honoured when Lifetime Production certificates were presented for Alice Pontiac Rag Apple De Kol by producing 128,695 lbs. of milk containing 4,449 lbs. fat in 9 lactations and Jennie Bud Matchless by producing 105,858 lbs. milk containing 4,031 lbs. fat in 8 lactations.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

SMALL NO. 1 POTATOES GAIN IN POPULARITY

Reports reaching the Field Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, indicate that many people prefer a potato of small size and look for these when shopping. A small potato may be boiled whole "in the jacket" and this method of cooking not only preserves the vitamin and mineral content, but imparts a distinctive flavour to the potato. Also, whole small potatoes are often added to such dishes as stew and they are just right for baking around a roast.

In institutions where mechanical peelers are used, the management prefers small potatoes because tests have proved that there is less waste in peeling. Also, they feel that several small potatoes, rather than one large one, add to the attractiveness and appeal of their meals.

In addition, a consumer survey by the Ontario Potato Growers' Association indicates that consumers prefer potatoes of uniform size and shape.

This year it is estimated that due to growing conditions, about twenty per cent of the Ontario crop will grade No. 1 Small (1½ to 2½ inches in diameter). This No. 1 Small is a comparatively new grade in Ontario, and indications are that it will be popular with consumers generally. Other grades are No. 1 Large with 3½ inch minimum and Canada No. 1 grade with a size range of 2½ to 4 inches for regular varieties and a 2 inch minimum for long-shaped varieties.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture maintains a staff of Inspectors across the province to assist in maintaining grade standards. Any requests or complaints should be directed to the nearest official of the Department, or direct to the Fruit Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

PRODUCING "A" GRADE HOG CARCASSES

Ontario farmers are producing a higher percentage of "A" grade hogs at the present time than they did a year ago. This gradual improvement in grade is a healthy trend for the swine industry.

Not only does the A grade carcass net the producer more than a B1 or C grade, but it actually costs less to produce, says Prof. R. P. Forshaw, Department of Animal Husbandry, of the Ontario Agricultural College. It requires more feed to produce a pound of fat than a pound of lean, and overfatness is the largest single factor responsible for carcasses being graded B1 or C. Thus it pays in two ways to produce A's instead of B1's or C's.

There are four important factors which determine the percentage of "A" grade hogs a farmer will produce: (1) quality of breeding stock; (2) feeding programme; (3) marketing weight; (4) the sex of the pig.

The selection of high-quality breeding stock from strains capable of producing a high percentage of "A" grades is important, says the O.A.C. authority. The farmers actual grading records and the results of advanced registry test should both form the basis of selection.

The use of a balanced ration at all times, together with some slowing down of the growth rate during the finishing period, will give the highest percentage of "A" grade carcasses, states Prof. Forshaw. But slow growth, if it is due to the feeding of an unbalanced ration, will result in carcasses with less lean and more fat than if a balanced ration is used.

With respect to marketing weights, the range of 30 lbs. in the weight of carcasses eligible for "A" grade should be ample to allow for marketing at weekly or ten-day intervals and coming within the weight range. Carcasses below 130 lbs. and over 170 lbs. are automatically graded B or lower.

Prof. Forshaw points out that pigs marketed to give carcasses in the lower half of the permissible weight range will give a higher percentage of "A's" than if marketed to give carcasses over 155 lbs. Any farmer having difficulty estimating the market weight of his hogs would be well advised to purchase a set of beam scales available at cost from the Canada Department of Agriculture. Improved gradings will quickly pay for their cost.

The sex of the pig is important, since gilts give leaner carcasses than barrows, and hence a higher percentage of "A" grade.

own particular food delicacies, and with the coming of autumn there is once again an excellent supply of Ontario yellow turnips or rutabagas which the fall frosts have mellowed and brought to full flavour. The turnip is an economical food and when properly cooked contains large quantities of Vitamin C, as well as other vitamins and minerals.

The Nutrition Section, Home Economics Service, Ontario Department of Agriculture, advises that the best method is to prepare the vegetable immediately before cooking, cut into half-inch cubes, drop into a small amount of rapidly boiling water, cover closely and boil gently only until crisp tender — 10 to 20 minutes. Use any liquid that remains in soup or gravy, season turnips, add a bit of butter and a little brown sugar if desired, and serve at once. This method ensures fine flavour, pleasing texture and the retention of much of their Vitamin C content.

Turnips combine well with other vegetables to give attractive contrasts in colour, flavour and texture. A number of combinations are suggested in the pamphlet "The Delectable Canadian Rutabaga" which may be obtained from the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Government Owned Cobalt Ores Released For Treatment

Through the efforts of Dr. Sidney Smith and Senator George S. White, it is reliably understood that the Canadian Government will release Government owned Cobalt Ores stored at the Deloro Smelting & Refining Company, Limited, for the treatment and recovery of Cobalt Metal for the Canadian Government Stock Pile.

This action by the Government will ensure at least 5 months of full employment throughout the winter months for some 100 employees, who otherwise, would have been laid off in the very near future due to completion of existing contracts with the U.S. Government.

The Deloro Smelting & Refining Company, Limited, has for the past 8 years had almost its total Cobalt production capacity engaged in the treatment of Canadian Ores for the U.S. Government stock pile. With completion of these contracts, the Deloro Smelting & Refining Company, Limited, will have available some spare capacity. The nature of these Canadian Cobalt ores is such, that no other smelter on the North American Continent is fully equipped to treat them.

Federation of Agriculture Annual Meeting Held Here

Approximately seventy-five members of the Hastings County Federation of Agriculture attended the Annual Meeting held in Stirling Community Hall on Monday night.

The speakers of the evening were Chas. McGinnis, President of the Ontario Hog Producers' Association; Lloyd Jasper, President of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, and Miss Kay Homan, representative of Hastings County in the Federation Prince and Princess competition.

Mr. McGinnis told his listeners that a crisis was now shaping up for the hog producers' marketing scheme as the organization competed with the packers and drovers for a bigger share of hogs marketed. He said that the marketing agency handled only about 23 per cent of all hogs marketed in the province and urged farmers to ship their hogs through the agency.

Mr. Jasper reviewed the activities of the Federation during the past year and spoke of the forthcoming Federation convention. He urged support of the Federation noting that the organization was the backbone of all commodity groups.

Miss Homan also stressed the importance of the Federation of Agriculture and repeating a speech given earlier at the Federation Prince and Princess competition, pointed out the reasons why the Federation is important to farmers.

Mr. McGinnis was introduced by Ernest Tunmon, of Foxboro, while Ross Ketcheson introduced Mr. Jasper.

Officers Chosen

Mr. Ross Ketcheson, of Moira, was elected to the office of President, succeeding Percy Ray, of Zion Hill, who was named Zone Director.

Don Leeming, of Belleville R.R. 6, succeeds Robert Philip, of Stirling, as Secretary, and Geo. Carlisle, of Stirling, was re-elected Treasurer.

Vice-Presidents of the County Federation are: Philo Harris, of Madoc; John Kane, of Stirling, and Cecil Ketcheson, of Thurlow Township.

the most famous classics in the world of ballet set to Tchaikovsky's glorious music. "Swan Lake Act II" and a charming French ballet "Pas de Chance" round out a wonderful programme which should appeal to young and old alike.

The evening's programme features "Carnaval" by Michel Fokine danced to Schumann's beautiful music and first presented in St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1910, followed by a new ballet "Winter Night" danced to the music of Rachmaninoff's Second Concerto, which will feature Canadian concert pianist Reginald Godden. The concluding item on the evening programme is the riotous "Offenbach in the Underworld" which created such a sensation here two years ago that it is being brought back by special request. This ballet appeals especially to the men in the audience, and is considered the most popular ballet in the Company's repertoire.

National Ballet Company Coming To Belleville

Returning to Belleville's Collegiate Auditorium for the third year in succession, the National Ballet Company of Canada is presenting two colourful performances on Saturday, November 9th. The visit comes near the beginning of the Company's seventh annual tour, which is to take it on a wide sweep of the United States and Canada, reaching as far afield as Seattle, Wash. and Vancouver.

The National Ballet has become one of the largest touring attractions on the continent. Acclaimed by critics and audiences alike across Canada and in the leading cities of the United States, it is recognized as one of the major companies in the world. It is under the inspired direction of Miss Celia Franca, formerly one of Europe's most brilliant talents before coming to this country seven years ago.

In keeping with her declared policy of continued progress, Miss Franca has added several new ballets to the Company's repertoire and Belleville is indeed fortunate that all of these are to be included here. In the afternoon these are "The Willow" an amusing Canadian ballet and dances from the "Sleeping Beauty" one of
